...OVIET OFFER ...O JOIN AXIS ...ARED BY U.S.

...oice of America' Broadcasts Tell Full Story of Moscow-Berlin Honeymoon.

By The Associated Press

...WASHINGTON, Jan. 22—The ...ited States uncorked a major ...opaganda blow against Russia ...day by officially revealing a ...viet offer in 1940 to join the ...rman-Italian-Japanese axis at ...price Adolf Hitler refused to ...y.

...Already the government's in...rmation mouthpiece to the ...rld, the "Voice of America" ...ortwave radio, is pouring into ...ssia and the rest of Europe the ...ctual story told in a fat volume ...long-secret German foreign of...e records published suddenly ...the state department.

...The book's 362 pages disclose ...e minutest details of the two-...ar Moscow-Berlin honeymoon ...hich began when the men who ...w rule Russit negotiated a non-...gression pact with Hitler and ...hich ended with Hitler's treach...ous attack on the Soviet Union ...ne 22, 1941.

...It gives the word-by-word deals ...hich led to the 1939 friendship ...eaty as well as the texts of the ...en top secret additions under ...hich Germany and the Soviet ...ion carved Poland and north...stern Europe into spheres of in...ence or outright control.

...And it tells how Premier Stalin ...manded, without even getting an ...swer, a free hand in Finland, ...military base near the Darda...elles and a dominant voice in the ...l-rich middle east in return for ...four-power axis.

Excluded from Trial

...The state department volume ...as published last night after ...onths of discussion among top ...fficials here as to what disposi...on should be made of the docu...ents which were captured by ...merican forces when Berlin fell ...nd which Russia fought success...lly to exclude from the Nuern...erg war crimes trial.

...The high point of Russo-Ger...an collaboration, the new pub...cation shows, was reached in the ...mmer of 1940 when Soviet For...gn Minister Molotov was record...d in German memoranda as hav...g "expressed the warmest con...atulations of the Soviet govern...ent on the splendid success of the ...erman armed forces" which then ...ere smashing the free nations of ...estern Europe.

...It was later that year, after ...ussia had become alarmed by the ...ew three-power pact among ...taly, Germany and Japan, that ...e question arose of Russia's ...aking the axis a four-way ...ookup.

Von Ribbentrop's Idea

...The deal was suggested to Molo...v by Nazi Foreign Minister Von ...ibbentrop—later to be hanged ...s a war criminal at Nuernberg—...uring Molotov's famous visit to ...erlin in November. Ribbentrop ...ffered two secret agreements ...hich would have had the effect ...f dividing Europe, Asia and Africa ...mong the four powers, excluding ...merica and Britain from those ...ontinents and assuring the Soviet ...nion of control of the Dar...anelles.

...Later, in a note sent to Berlin ...rom Moscow by German Ambas...ador Count von Der Schulenburg, ...olotov offered to conclude such ...pact provided a wider Soviet ...phere was guaranteed.

...The Russian demand covered ...nclusion of Finland in this sphere, ...Soviet-Bulgarian mutual assist...nce pact, a Russian land and sea ...ase within range of the Darda...elles and flat assurance that the ...area south of Batum and Baku ...n the general direction of the ...ersian gulf is recognized as the ...enter of the aspirations of the ...oviet union."

Never An Answer

...Hitler's government never re...lied to these proposals. Instead, ...documents from the German secret ...iles showed that on Dec. 18, 1940, ...Hitler ordered his armies to pre...are "to crush Soviet Russia in a ...uick campaign even before the ...onclusion of the war against ...ngland."

...One of the sources of conflict ...which eventually seems to have ...rought Hitler's decision to attack ...ussia was the issue of who was ...o dominate the Balkans.

...The original Moscow-Berlin ...on-aggression pact carried a se...ret attachment, now officially ...ublished for the first time, as...igning Russia the Baltic states ...except for Lithuania, which she ...later got anyway, and the eastern ...section of Poland beginning im...mediately east of Warsaw. Russia ...was also given a largely free hand ...o take Bessarabia from Romania, ...ut the complete control of the ...Balkans which she obtained with ...he end of the war was not pro...vided for.

...One of the first troubles which ...ollowed the signing of the non-...ggression pact came in the sum...mer of 1940 when Russian forces ...eized Bessarabia and also north-

RODNEY BROBECK AT DESK IN OLNEY SCHOOL

BONUS FORMS OUT MARCH 1

Applications To Be Available from Local Groups on That Date.

By International News Service

COLUMBUS, Jan. 22—Applications for Ohio's 300-million-dollar World War II bonus will be available to veterans locally on March 1.

Adjutant Gen. Chester W. Goble, director of the bonus, said that 3½ million forms will be distributed by that time and would be available through county service officers and local posts of the various veterans' organizations.

Gen. Goble estimated that about half of Ohio's 827 thousand veterans would file their applications within the first month. However, veterans may file anytime from March 1 to June 30, 1950.

The applications will have to be accompanied by original discharge papers, Goble said, However, in case of loss, substitute copies certified by the armed forces will be accepted. The discharges will be photostatted, stamped and returned to the applicants.

First Come, First Served

Still confronted by personnel problems and equipment shortages, the director said he did not know when the first check actually will be mailed. His policy, he said, would be "first come, first served."

Goble met with newsmen and told them plans for payment of the bonus are taking shape. He scheduled an all-day meeting Feb. 7 with all county veterans' service offices, and invited as well representatives of American Legion, veterans of the VFW, the DAV, the AMVETS, and other veterans organizations.

The state will be divided into 20 districts for bonus purposes, and the 20 district representatives will be schooled in Columbus the week of Feb. 9 to 15.

The following two weeks will be devoted to education and training programs, including district meetings and county meetings.

The "Form No. 1"—that to be used by living veterans—has not yet been delivered by the printer. Goble promised to make it available for publication about Feb. 25.

A second application, form No. 2, will be needed by beneficiaries of deceased veterans or war casualties. The final draft of this form has not yet been decided upon.

Rockies Searched For Missing CAA Plane

By The Associated Press

DENVER, Jan. 22—The Rocky Mountains west of Denver were scanned today for trace of a Civil Aeronautics Administration plane that disappeared last night on a two-hour flight from Denver to Grand Junction, Colo.

Three men were aboard the two engine C-47 (DC-3) that reported "severe turbulence" and snow squalls at 14,500 feet before radio contact was suddenly disrupted 20 minutes after taking off from Denver at 4 p. m., Mountain Standard time.

Pilot Fred Snavely, Kansas City, Kas.; co-pilot Warren L. Lingstrum, Leavenworth, Kas., and Ross C. Brown, a CAA aeronautical inspector of Denver, were aboard the missing craft.

STOCK EXECUTIVE DIES

A young Marion artist has been chosen winner of third place in a drawing contest sponsored by a national youth magazine, and will receive special recognition, it has been announced.

Rodney Brobeck, third grade pupil in the Olney Avenue school, drew the third best "Funny Bunny" picture among 10,000 entries, judges revealed, and representatives of Look magazine were in Marion recently to secure pictures of the youthful artist and his work for a forthcoming issue. The contest was conducted by Young America Junior Reader, a weekly publication used in schools for supplementary reading. Miss Bertha Thomas is Rodney's teacher, and he is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton E. Brobeck of 565 West Columbia street.

For the "Funny Bunny" drawing, designed as a device to be used as leisure time amusement for the youthful readers of Young America Junior Reader, an outline was provided to be filled in and finished in color.

The third place winner sent in several drawings, and he does not yet know which was chosen as his best by the judges. Announcement will be made of names of winners in the Feb. 5 issue of Young America Junior Reader.

The contest began Nov. 6 and was closed Nov. 27. It was stated that the story about Rodney with his photograph and a reproduction of his dawing in full color, will be featured in the nationally circulated picture magazine in a spring issue. Rodney is one of three children. He has two sisters, Royce and Phyllis. His father operates an auto repair shop at the West Columbia street address.

EX-KING SAILS FOR CUBA

By The Associated Press

LISBON, PORTUGAL, Jan. 22—Leopold III, exiled king of Belgium, sailed for Cuba today with his wife and sons. Royal sources in Brussels said last week the family was going on a holiday in the western hemisphere and might visit the United States. Leopold's brother, Prince Charles, is regent of Belgium.

TRADE UNIONS CALL STRIKE IN BAVARIA

Protest Food Shortage; Walkout Could Affect 1 Million in American Zone.

By The Associated Press

MUNICH, GERMANY, Jan. 22—The Bavarian Trade Union Federation called today for a 24 hour walkout of virtually all workers in Bavaria to begin tonight at midnight.

The strike, protesting food shorages, could affect nearly 1,000,000 workers in this American zone state.

About 200,000 workers staged a 24-hour strike yesterday in Nuernberg and Cologne. It was the largest walkout in western Germany since last April.

The strike call will affect such large cities at Munich, Nuernberg, Augsburg, Regensburg, Wuerzburg and Coburg.

Trade union leader arranged a broadcast to all union members throughout Bavaria, appealing for a strike between midnight Thursday and midnight Friday.

Take Emergency Steps

American and British authorities took emergency steps to relieve the food crisis, releasing 5,000 tons of imported fats to boost the rations of 40,000,000 Germans during the coming month. The strikes of the last two weeks have been directed largely against fat and meat shortages.

A home-made grenade blew up last night at the Grand Hotel here, headquarters of U. S. war crimes prosecutors. The explosion, on a dining-room windowsill, showered glass on a score of Army officers and lawyers, but Army investigators said only two or three were scratched. Investigators did not connect the blast with hunger demonstrations.

A 24-hour strike begun yesterday in key industries involved about 100,000 persons in Nuernberg, in the U. S. zone, and about 100,000 others in Cologne, in the British zone.

Ruhr Troubled

The number affected was the most in the economically merged zones since upward of 300,000 struck for 24 hours last April in the industrial Ruhr, under British occupation. In recent weeks the Ruhr has been troubled by a series of walkout embracing about 200,000 altogether.

Woman Smoker Causes Maternity Ward Fire

By The United Press

WARREN, Jan. 22—A careless woman smoker today was blamed for a fire which broke out on the third floor of the Trumbull Memorial hospital here last night forcing the evacuation of 32 mothers and newborn infants. Damage was set at $60,000.

Firemen said a woman visitor reportedly tossed a lighted cigaret into a ventilator shaft, touching off the blaze in an old wooden section of the hospital.

The patients were transferred without injury to the new fireproof east and west wings of the hospital.

150 MILLION FIGURED AS 1950 U. S. POPULATION

By International News Service

NEW YORK, Jan. 22—Population of the United States probably will total 150 million by 1950, according to Dr. Louis I. Dublin, statistician for Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. He said:

"The extraordinary rapid rise in births since 1940 has completely upset earlier forecasts of our population growth and of the future maximum population of the country."

Map "Boost Marion" Program At Store Managers' Dinner

"Boost Marion" was the theme of the second annual dinner meeting of the retail store managers division of the Marion Chamber of Commerce last night at Hotel Harding.

Suiting action to their slogan the merchants voted to accept a five point "Boost Marion" program which will give Marion five big community events during the year.

Guest speaker at the affair was Robert R. Bangham of Wilmington, assistant state director of public welfare, whose subject was "Another Chance."

"A peaceful world must be based on a prosperous America and free enterprise," Mr. Bangham said. "I believe that each merchant has a responsibility and an obligation to the community which he serves. Each merchant must take part in civic affairs to aid in the continuation of government in the American way which is the only hope for business opportunity in the world today."

"Merchants must develop the will to work," Mr. Bangham continued, "and through greater service to the community by the merchant the community will grow, strengthen and prosper. I wish to emphasize that cooperation between Marion merchants is essential to the development of a better Marion."

Urges Leadership

"Businessmen must do their part with the school and the church to strengthen American home life," he said, reminding the merchants that small groups of leaders had moulded the minds of the youth of Germany, Italy, and Russia and that it was the duty of business men to supply the leadership which would direct the activities of American youth in the ways of truth and righteousness. "The need now is for virtuous leading", he concluded.

Mr. Bangham was introduced by George Hammond, public relations secretary of the Ohio State Council of Retail Merchants, who was in turn introduced by Charles Jennings, chairman of the retail board of managers, who was toastmaster.

The five communitywide events which the merchants and the Chamber of Commerce are arranging for Marion, were outlined by Paul Felder, chairman of the retail promotions committee.

The first will be "A Weekend at the Waldorf," a seven-county contest to determine the outstanding senior high school girl with contestants selected by vote of the students of all high schools in Marion county and the six sur-

FRED L. CARHART DIES SUDDENLY

Fred L. Carhart, 68, widely known Marion county attorney, died of a heart attack on East Church street at 1:30 p. m. today.

He collapsed as he was starting across Church street to the Pure Oil Service station at the corner of South Vine street and Mt. Vernon avenue to get his car which he had left to be washed and serviced.

Eddie Kerns, an employe of the station, called the L. A. Axe & Son ambulance.

Mr. Carhart was pronounced dead upon arrival at the City hospital.

Mr. Carhart had been in failing health for some time but had been able to make occasional trips downtown. He was active in Masonic circles, and, for many years practiced law here.

Surviving are the widow and two chidlren, Ralph E. Carhart of Franklin street and Dwight Carhart of North State street, both of whom are engaged in the practice of law.

Take Nazi P.O.W. To Toledo for Hearing

Special to The Star

UPPER SANDUSKY, Jan. 22—The former prisoner of war, Karl Kreis, who liked life in these United States so well he returned as a stowaway after being sent back to Germany, was taken from the Wyandot county jail yesterday to appear for a hearing in the Federal Court at Toledo.

It is expected he will be deported to his native Germany, although he has expressed reluctance and would rather stay in the United States even under the conditions he experienced as a POW at Camp Picket, Va. Kreis was arrested on a Wyandot county farm, north of Upper Sandusky, where he was working as a "hand."

Why Hull Didn't Run for Presidency

In the Memoirs of Cordell Hull, starting in The Star Monday, Jan. 26, the former secretary of state tells how President Roosevelt, after grooming him for the presidency, decided to run for a third term.

Intimate conversations leading up to this decision between these two world figures are disclosed in a series of frank, revealing articles.

Young Arraignment Set For Saturday Morning

At a brief hearing in common pleas court Wednesday afternoon Judge Paul D. Smith appointed Paul D. Michel as attorney to defend Edwin D. Young, who will be arraigned at 10 a. m. Saturday on a first degree murder indictment in the slaying of Mrs. Zora Gerbes.

Young made his first appearance at 2 p. m. in the Marion county court since his return from Colorado to stand trial. Judge Smith had him in court not more than 10 minutes, first verifying that the indictment had been served and then questioning him as to counsel.

Young, wearing the same overalls and leather jacket he had on when he got off the train here Monday, glumly said he had received a copy of the indictment Tuesday.

Without Resources, He Says

Asked if he had secured the services of a lawyer, Young replied in the negative. To the questions, "Do you have any funds or property or relatives or friends that would provide you funds to obtain an attorney, he bleakly answered, "Not that I know of."

Judge Smith then named former County Prosecutor Michel to defend him and set the date for arraignment, concluding the brief session witnessed by a handful of court attaches and spectators who chanced to observe the prisoner being taken into the courthouse.

Young appeared in custody of Sheriff LeRoy Retterer and Deputy Edgar Fink. He showed no particular signs of nervousness, his manner appearing more resigned than tense.

Sheriff Retterer said he had given no trouble since entering the sheriff's custody at LaJunta, Colo., and making his subsequent confession.

"He seemed glad to get it off his chest and has been relaxed ever since," the sheriff said.

Has Had No Visitors

Young is allowed to mingle with other prisoners at the jail during the day but is returned to his own cell at night. He has had no visitors as yet, the sheriff reported.

Mr. Michel, who will defend Young, is the senior partner in the law firm of Donithen, Michel and Davis. He served as Marion county prosecutor from 1935 through 1940. His experience in criminal cases included the Harvey Roush murder case in 1938, in which a verdict of guilty of first degree murder for the slaying of Mr. and Mrs. Homer T. Myers was returned, and the Otha Watkins and Grover Braden cases, both defendants found guilty of first degree murder with recommendation for mercy. This will be the first first degree murder case in which Michel will represent the accused.

Another Reward Claimant

Meanwhile it was revealed today that a constable in Prowers county, Colorado, has entered a claim to the $1,000 reward offered for the arrest and conviction of the murder of Mrs. Gerbes.

Prosecuting Attorney James E. Reed Wednesday afternoon received a special delivery letter from Ben H. Williams, constable and justice of the peace who made the arrest of "Roy E. Edwards." In his claim to the reward Williams states he arrested the man Jan. 6 on a warrant issued by Justice of the Peace C. D. Thompson of Holly, Colo., on a complaint issued by a Glen Pinkham of nearby Granada to whom "Edwards" had issued "short checks."

It was Prowers County Sheriff John Hodson, however, who made the actual identification of Young at the Holly jail where he had been confined after his arrest on the bad check charge.

Carter Patton, custodian of the reward fund, indicated today that a written claim for the $1,000 would be sought from Hodson and the two claims will be submitted to the local court for decision as to whom the reward will go.

Cold Weather Strikes Again

Mercury Skids to Zero Readings Over Large Area of Nation.

With Marion and a wide section of the country having been relieved for a few days of the bitter cold weather which had enveloped the country for more than a week, another intense cold wave spread over a wide section of the midwest today, an Associated Press dispatch today stated.

Temperatures in Marion took a sudden drop last night to a low of 7 above zero from the high of 31 which was registered during the day. The thermometers stood at the low reading at 8 o'clock this morning.

A forecast of "colder tonight; Friday, cloudy with light snow" was issued today by the Columbus Weather Bureau. A year ago, the mercury stood at a high of 20 and a low of 4.

The fuel gas situation remains about the same here, C. E. Sechrist, manager of the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. office here, said today, with the large industries still curtailed. No other curtailments have been issued, Mr. Sechrist stated, however places of business are asked to conserve as much as possible.

The fresh icy blasts, reported to be coming direct from the frigid Hudson Bay region, appeared headed for the rest of the eastern half of the country which was chilled by last week's severe weather. Temperatures equalling the sub-zero lows of last week were indicated and the current cold wave was expected to linger through Saturday.

Temperatures tumbled to near 30 degrees below zero in the Dakotas, Minnesota and Wisconsin today. The biting cold extended as far south as the lower Missouri and lower Ohio valleys and the west into central Nebraska and western South Dakota.

Federal forecaster H. L. Jacobson in Chicago said the current cold wave promises to cover the same general area struck by last week's intense cold.

CALLED BLOW AT INFLATION

AFL Head Suggests Voluntary Management-Labor Arrangement.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22—AFL President William Green proposed today management and labor voluntarily set up a 45-hour work week on an overtime pay basis as a means of producing more goods and helping to beat inflation.

The 74-year-old labor leader told the senate banking committee labor would consider the extra work hours if congress, in turn, would approve an effective means for halting the price spiral.

This would include most of the 10-point anti-inflation program recommended to congress by President Truman, except standby authority to control wages, Green said in a prepared statement.

Green suggested an extra hour of work a day. He told a reporter this would mean an increase from the present 40-hour work week in most industries to 45 hours, with labor receiving time and one half pay for the extra five hours.

Called Practical Plan

"I offer this suggestion as a practical recommendation of the ways in which employers and workers could jointly make a contribution to the anti-inflation fight," Green said in his statement.

He estimated that 16,000,000 workers now employed in manufacturing would provide an addition 8,000,000 manhours of production per day" under his proposal.

Tonight the committee will hold an unusual overtime session in an effort to speed a decision on legislation designed to check inflation. Representatives of the grain industry are listed as witnesses.

President Truman has asked for hold-in-reserve power to reimpose wage-price controls and rationing on a selective basis if he considers such a step necessary.

The swelling chorus of Republican opposition to Mr. Truman's proposals was joined yesterday by former President Herbert Hoover.

In a statement outlining his views on European aid and the related problem of the domestic economy, Hoover termed it an "illusion" that scarcity and inflation "can be more than temporarily retarded by compulsory fixing of wages, prices and rationing."

"Any such course," the former chief executive declared, "sets up chain reactions which ultimately decrease production and defeat their very purpose."

Urges Voluntary Acts

He called for voluntary measures plus "more and harder work."

The AFL traditionally has opposed "peacetime federal controls but Green said in a New Year's statement:

"It seems inevitable that some form of government regulation of prices of items which enter into the cost of living, especially food, clothing and rent, will have to be instituted in 1948." He added:

"Unless the present economic crisis takes an immediate turn for the better, it will be necessary... to clamp government brakes on the uncontrolled price spiral."

DON O. UTZ NAMED THEATER MANAGER

Former Marion Man Returns To Operate Palace.

Don O. Utz, 28, a native of Marion will take over the management of the Palace theater, it was announced today by the Northio Theater corporation operators of the Palace and Marion theaters here.

Utz, whose appointment is effective today, succeeds George E. Planck, associated with Marion theaters for the past 13 years and whose resignation was announced Wednesday.

Mr. Utz returns to Marion from Hamilton, O., where he operated the firm's theaters for the past year and a half. He has been with the company 13 years. His start in the theater business was obtained here in 1937 when he was employed as an usher at the Marion theater. Two years later he was promoted to manager and served in that capacity in 1939 and 1940.

Mr. Utz is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Utz, 404 West Columbia street. His wife, the former Helen Mae Touchett, is also a native of Marion. The Utz' have two daughters.

1948 Chevrolets Announced Today Have Many New Features

By DAVID J. WILKIE
Associated Press Automotive Editor

DETROIT, Jan. 22—Chevrolet division of General Motors announced its 1948 models today, disclosing numerous styling changes and some advances in engine design but no alterations that involved serious assembly line interruption.

T. H. Keating, Chevrolet general sales manager, said new models with a minimum of production delay had been the objective because of the huge backlog of unfilled demand.

The Chevrolets again come out in the Fleetline, Fleetmaster and Stylemaster series with a total of 11 diferent models. Features on all models include a re-designed radiator grille, new color harmonies in upholstery and engine changes that provide more rigid crankshaft and more durable bearings.

Among the New Features

The new radiator grille and bumper add to the appearance of massiveness in the new models. Also new is a three-way ignition switch which permits removal of the key with ignition locked or unlocked on or off.

The new models will go on public display in the showrooms of most Chevrolet dealers during the next few days.

Chevrolet, heaviest of the world's car and truck manufacturers, produced 695,991 cars and 335,347 trucks last year. This represented nearly 20 per cent of the industry's aggregate passenger vehicle output and slightly more than 27 per cnt of the total commercial unit production.

Long the "big money maker" of the General Motors organization, Chevrolet currently has the biggest backlog of unfilled orders of any of the world's car makers and the biggest in its own history. At the same time, taking the major share of GM's more than $500,000,000 postwar rehabilitation and expansion program, it has the greatest production capacity of any of the automobile manufacturers.

High Daily Capacity

It has been estimated that with full use of the new facilities Chevrolet could assemble not less than 9,000 units a day. The capacity operations but in common with other car and truck companies Chevrolet is expected to increase its output by from 10 to 15 per cent over 1947.

And it an unexpectedly liberal supply of sheet metal should become available around mid-year the increase might go as high as 20 per cent.

Industry chroniclers do not regard a 20 per cent increase for Chevrolet as too much to expect; in 1941, despite the fact production was under government limitations during the latter half of the year, the biggest of the motor vehicle makers produced 1,250,281 vehicles.

Tom Keating, Chevrolet's plain-speaking sales chief, has one of the world's biggest merchandising jobs. And he's bluntly realistic about it.

"The automobile business," he declares, "is probably the world's most highly competitive enterprise. In our field, covered mainly by Chevrolet, Ford and Plymouth, the competition is tougher than anywhere . . . and we don't under-estimate our competitors."

Keating knows it will be even tougher when the buyers' market returns but it cannot come too soon for him; he'd like to see his entire merchandising organization out selling cars and trucks instead of merely delivering them on long-standing orders.

Officers Are Elected By Ladies of Columbia

Election of officers for the new year was conducted when the Catholic Ladies of Columbia met Monday night in the St. Mary community house on North Prospect street. Reelected to serve the group were Mrs. Genevieve McKinney, president, Mrs. Michael Moran, vice president, Mrs. Patricia Winterhoff, treasurer, Mrs. Kathryn Anderson, financial secretary, Mrs. Helen Glaze, inner guard, and Mrs. Josephine Cusic, monitor. Newly elected were Mrs. Margaret Baker, recording secretary, and Mrs. Mary Goss, trustee for three years. Named to serve on the sick committee were Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mrs. Mary Goss and Mrs. Mary Maxwell. A social hour followed the meeting. At the next meeting, Feb. 16, installation of officers will be held, preceded by a potluck supper.

TRUMAN HINTS AT DEMOCRATS' PLANS

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22—President Truman said today he is sure there will be an announced candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination in advance of the party's convention.

The President, in a gay mood, refused at his weekly news conference to let correspondents pin him down on the man he has in mind.

In any event, he said there will be one before the Democratic national convention, which opens in Philadelphia July 12.

Someone suggested he had used the word "one." Mr. Truman replied that everybody in the United States has a right to be a candidate in either party.

"Or a third party?" asked a reporter.

Or a third party ticket, the President said.

He laughed but said he had no comment when he was asked whether Henry A. Wallace might follow the example of A. F. Whitney, head of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and line up with the Democrats.

Whitney indorsed the President Tuesday after his first White House call since he threatened to work for Mr. Truman's defeat after the railroad strike in 1946.

The brief strike ended when Mr. Truman asked congressional authority to draft striking railroad workers into the Army.

Galion Industrialist Invited to Meeting

By The United Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22—Five Ohio farm equipment industry leaders have been invited to meet with department of commerce officials Tuesday to discuss the new "voluntary agreement" program authorized by congress to fight inflation.

Ohioans asked to meet with the department of commerce are A. Volderamer of Farm Tools, Inc., Mansfield; John C. Myers of F. E. Myers and Bros. Co., Ashland; Harry Cobey of Perfection Steel Body Co., Galion; Ray Dunham of Dunham Co., Berea, and Henry Syne of New Idea Farm Equipment Co., Coldwater.

Dr. Eddy Addresses Two More Groups Here

Dr. Sherwood Eddy, outstanding lecturer, author and world traveler, who is in Marion this week addressing several groups, spoke at two meetings yesterday.

At noon, he addressed the Wednesday noon Men's luncheon group at the Y.M.C.A., and in the evening spoke to a congregation of about 50 people at the Wesley Methodist church in a dinner meeting. His talk for both meetings was on "Russia."

Dr. Eddy and Mrs. Eddy just recently returned from an extensive trip in Europe where he studied living conditions.

MISSING HOLLYWOOD PRODIGY FOUND — Jacqueline (Jackie) Horner, Hollywood's 14-year-old child prodigy pianist whose disappearance a week ago started a nationwide search, is questioned by Police Inspector Joe Norton after she was found in a San Francisco hotel with Wallace Wells (left), 19-year-old sailor.

CHILDREN DIE IN FIRE

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Jan. 22—Three children in one family, aged 1, 2 and 3, died as a result of a fire which destroyed their two-story home at Stapleton, Staten Island, yesterday. An 11-year-old brother was injured in a leap from a porch roof after a futile attempt to rescue the other children.

RUNAWAY PRODIGY WANTS TO HAVE FUN

By The Associated Press

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22—Jacqueline Horner, 15-year-old Hollywood piano prodigy and actress, proposed today to compromise pleasure and the keyboard after an eight-day fling that brought worldliness into her cloistered life.

"I want to have fun and live a normal life," said the girl who ran away from fame and career after a spat with her mother. She was found here yesterday in a hotel room with Seaman Second Class Wallace Wells, 19, Hood River, Ore., after a nationwide search.

Jacqueline said she was considering going home if she could have more freedom. However—

"If I don't get my way in some things, I'll run away again."

As a result of Jacqueline's pursuit of fun Wells and Mrs. Floria Jean Costello Miles, 22, were charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The juvenile court clad Jackie in an oversized mother hubbard that detracted from the glamor of her new upsweep, reddish-blonde (dyed) hairdo and held her as a material witness.

District Attorney Edmund G. Brown said Jacqueline met Mrs. Miles on a bus and lived with her a few days, during which sailors visited them. Then, he said, Miss Horner left with Wells.

Brown quoted the attractive young musician as saying Mrs. Miles taught her to pick up sailors in bars, encourage them to drink and earn for herself rebates from bartenders.

She and Wells said there was nothing improper in their relations, and several police questioners said they seemed to be telling the truth.

Her mother, Mrs. Clara Horner, who collapsed at her Los Angeles home when informed Jackie had been found, remained under the care of a physician.

Gubernatorial Race Narrows in Louisiana

By The Associated Press

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 22—Two former governors—Earl K. Long, brother of the late Huey P. Long, and Sam H. Jones, who defeated Long for the office in 1940—will fight it out for the governorship in Louisiana's second Democratic primary Feb. 24.

The two arch political foes topped a field of four in Tuesday's first primary on basis of returns from most of the state's precincts.

Complete, unofficial returns from 1,203 of 1,878 boxes gave Long 147,209 votes and a plurality of 50,253 over Jones who won 96,956 votes.

Appeals Judge Robert F. Kennon was third with 75,416 and Rep. James H. Morrison (D-La) last with 62,888.

2 Directors Reelected By Loan Association

F. R. Geer and Henry A. Mickley were reelected to the board of directors, to serve for three years, at the sixtieth annual meeting of the shareholders of the Marion Federal Savings and Loan Association, held yesterday at the association's office. Holdover directors are John P. Probst, J. M. Strelitz, E. G. Siefert, Homer R. Waddell and Kelley R. Vance.

At the organization meeting of the directors, following the shareholders meeting, the following officers were reelected: F. R. Geer, president; Kelley R. Vance, executive vice president and secretary; John P. Probst, vice president; J. M. Strelitz, vice president; Pauline Ruhl, treasurer and assistant secretary, and Virgil R. Johnson, assistant secretary. The law firm of Mickley and Frericks was appointed attorneys for the association.

A successful year's operation was reported. It was announced that total assets of the association now exceed $5,200,000, with reserves of more than a half million dollars.

The company's 4,500 subscribers still were without service today, except for a few emergency stations.

Driver Arrested After Auto Hits Phone Pole

Estel C. Baker of near Marion was arrested yesterday at 9:12 p. m. on a charge of reckless operation of a motor vehicle after his car crashed into a telephone pole on Bartram avenue, city, police said. Baker posted $25 bond and was released. He was to appear in municipal court today, city police reported.

Cars driven by Ronald Harraman of 584 East Church street and Charles Watters of 430 Girard avenue collided at the intersection of Main street and Columbia yesterday.

Autos driven by Ralph Camm of 420 Scranton avenue and Robert Chappell of 379 East Fairground street collided at 3:57 p. m. Wednesday at an alley intersection between State and Main streets when Mr. Camm's car skidded on the icy street, police reported.

At 10:40 a. m. yesterday a car driven by Frances Galyk of 485 Patterson street collided with a parked car owned by R. L. Garver of 320 North Main street which was parked on Kenton avenue.

Politics or Prudence?

THESE things about federal tax reduction this year are certain:

1. Republican majorities in congress will pass a tax-reduction bill.

2. President Truman will veto the bill.

3. Republicans then will try to repass the bill over the President's veto.

The third step can succeed only with the help of Democrats. To get such help, Republicans will have to take tax reduction out of partisan politics and get it into the realm of ordinary prudence.

They will have to trim down the highest tax-reduction figure mentioned—the Knutson estimate of close to six billion dollars. That is an out-and-out political estimate.

They will have to prove they are willing to shrink federal spending drastically enough to give the treasury a sufficient surplus from a reduced tax income to retire a sizable chunk of the national debt.

They will have to demonstrate in all ways that they are primarily interested in keeping the federal government from becoming a tax-eating colossus starving local government to death—a process already under way.

They will have to give Democrats sincerely interested in trimming federal spending and the national debt a way to save their face if they vote for repassage of a Republican-inspired tax-reduction bill.

There is only one way to do that. It is to demonstrate that federal spending can be trimmed to a point where a moderate tax reduction still would leave a large surplus for debt retirement. In that event, tax reduction would cease to be a cynical device to catch votes and would be justifiable as sound fiscal policy.

If Republicans in congress do not satisfy this requirement, they will prove themselves guilty in the court of public opinion of playing crude partisan politics with the nation's financial welfare.

Gold, the Catalyst

ONE HUNDRED years ago this week gold was discovered in California, a sleepy stretch of Pacific coast roughly held together by settlements which had grown up around the Spanish missions. The population was less than 10,000. San Francisco, population 900, was barely holding its own. San Diego was going downhill. Monterey was the center of social life. Tallow and nides were the principal exports.

The discovery of gold was like a shot in the arm. The fabulous deeds of the 49'ers, the tales of the Barbary Coast and the mining camps provide some of the most vivid pages in the American book of years. Among those who failed to find gold were farmers who tapped an even richer lode—the fertile California soil. In the south a city called Nuestra Senora La Reina De Los Angeles began to grow like a hyperthyroid mushroom. Came the railroads, automobiles, movies, radios, pink stucco hot dog stands, Hollywood and Vine, berets, the Brown Derby, Malibu, Santa Anita, Beverly Hills and a land with millions of adopted sons and daughters.

The discovery of gold Jan. 24, 1848 was like a chain reaction that has been growing for 100 years. Gold, the catalyst that started it all, today is comparatively unimportant in the peculiarly wonderful land California has become.

It's an American Custom

THE rising fear of professional militarists who are filling civilian posts in government under the Truman administration has been checked at least temporarily by the senate armed service committee. It has turned down for the second time Mr. Truman's request for special authority to appoint Maj. Gen. Laurence S. Kuter chairman of civil aeronautics board without loss of his rank and pay. The house armed services committee apparently takes the same stand.

More was involved than the ability of Gen. Kuter. The appointment was a showdown on the Truman administration's evident desire to fill government posts with professional militarists. The Kuter case got attention because Mr. Truman wanted congress to continue the appointee's rank and pay, thereby giving him a financial advantage over any civilian who might have been appointed.

Doubts are stirring in congress about the effect of "the military mind" in the civilian branches of government—doubts that reflect the people's fear of militarism that began before the revolution and never has been quieted. On the contrary, it has been roused by the Prussian military curse on Germany and the betrayal of Japan by militarists. The United States has profited too much by the supremacy of civilians in its affairs to accept a potentially dangerous departure from American custom.

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

A Close-Up View of the Game of Politics.

EDWARD J. FLYNN of the Bronx, produced in his book, "You're the Boss," an outstanding sociological study of American life. No college professor could have written it, because no one of them could have had as intimate a view of the actual operations of our political system. I quote the following paragraph from Flynn's book:

"One of the main reasons for Willkie's defeat was the lack of support given him by the regular Republican organizations. The organizations certainly did not want him to be nominated. He overwhelmed them in Philadelphia. Unquestionably they left the convention with no kindly spirit toward their candidate. This feeling got worse, aggravated by the fact that Willkie took every opportunity he could to insult directly or indirectly the politicians in the Republican party . . ."

SOKOLSKY

Wendell Willkie could have been elected in 1940 Flynn comes pretty close to admitting that and I am sure that Jim Farley, when his full book appears, will come close to admitting it. Willkie was originally projected by a group of businessmen associated with the National Association of Manufacturers who were seeking someone to out-glamour Roosevelt. Long before the convention, he was invited to adress the NAM big dinner at the Waldorf Astoria. They saw a chance of defeating Roosevelt. There was money to burn. I know this situation intimately and directly because I was then associated with the NAM.

Situation Understated

The Republican politicians did not want Willkie. There were two reasons: 1. He was not a Republican. He had been a Democrat, actually a member of Tammany Hall; 2. They regarded him as the businessman's lawyer, not as a leader of their party. Flynn is correct but he understates the situation; it is not only that the regular Republican organizations failed to support Willkie; they actually voted against him.

I traveled from one end of the country to the other in that campaign, stumping for the Republican party. I wrote on Nov. 8, 1940:

". . . I found that Republican leaders and workers were without contact often even with the officers of the party. There was discouragement, resentment and disappointment. A campaign is not a crusade and it is won not by noise in unison but by enthusiastic and coordinated competence. The latter was lacking throughout."

Organization Preferences

The major political parties of this country are not membership organizations, but they consist of a large body of local workers who are often associated in local clubs. These are controlled by district leaders who, in turn, are controlled by county leaders. The really effective political agents are the county leaders. They make or break candidates. They are strictly organization men. They prefer organization men.

Of the many Republican candidates, three are strictly organization men, Robert A. Taft, Thomas E. Dewey and Joseph Martin, Jr. Stassen is an organization Republican but he is not really a candidate. Eisenhower is a rank outsider, projected by such outsiders as Thomas J. Watson of the International Business Machines Corporation and Joseph E. Davies, Mr. Roosevelt's "mission to Moscow." The manager of the draft Eisenhower movement, Stuart Scheftel, is a youngish man who has been all over the map, supporting independent movements in the Republican party but rarely a regular. His over-anxiety to achieve political leadership quickly and without practiced experience has made of a maverick a mugwump.

New York Picture Cleared

Dewey's announcement of his candidacy, while late, clarifies the atmosphere in New York. As long as he did not announce, candidates were playing for some votes in the New York delegation. From now on that delegation, which has not yet been chosen, will be a unit, and that unit will be for Dewey. In fact, one of Dewey's managers is Edwin F. Jaeckle, who, dissatisfied after the 1944 campaign, has now returned to the fold. He is the Republican boss of Buffalo, the city in which General "Wild Bill" Donovan, of the Eisenhower boom, may claim some political support.

The Republican party will resist being raided by outsiders in 1948. Most of the delegates will be organization men who want a Republican candidate, by which they will mean one who has been a Republican in the foul years between 1932 and 1946 as well as in the hopeful year when Wallace produces a third party to help out.

Work Is the Curse Of the Drinking Class

Tired of its employes sneaking out for a quick one at the corner tavern, a Chicago metal works has installed a bar in its plant.

And now, one supposes, it boasts "the best drinking conditions in the industry."

Thus may have been opened a new era in labor relations, one in which workers are attracted to the business, not with the highest wages, but the best old-fashioneds.

Who thought to see the day when a company could settle its labor problems with a swizzle stick?

The next time the Chicago metal workers local negotiates a contract, it may demand, not shorter hours, but longer beers.

Why, it may be just a question of a few years now until some power-and-bourbon-thirsty labor leader is demanding time-and-a-half for hangovers, to say nothing of gutter-to-gutter pay.

Billions for Defense

By Joseph and Stewart Alsop

WASHINGTON

AMERICAN strategic planning is still hag-ridden by the debate between the air and sea power advocates. In a nutshell, the air power spokesmen insist that the air arm is the real guarantee of American security, and the admirals reply that this is all very true, provided the air arm is partly controlled by the Navy. And this squabble over air and naval roles and missions is still preventing the joint chiefs of staff from discharging their primary function, which is to prepare an agreed, over-all strategic plan for the United States.

There is nothing new in this failure of joint chiefs, which has endured since the end of the war. There is novelty, however, in the proposals and arguments of the admirals. And those are also singularly interesting in the context of the present congressional and world situations.

Very briefly, the seapower spokesmen admit that the atomic bomb and other airborne weapons of total destruction are the heart of the modern offensive. But they argue that these weapons of total destruction cannot be delivered by land-based aircraft over the great ranges of inter-continental warfare, against modern air defenses. War planning must obviously chiefly involve a possible future conflict with the Soviet Union. The admirals correctly point out that there are very few bases around the Soviet periphery which will be available for use by swifter, less vulnerable bombers of shorter range.

Arguments for Ships

The admirals argue, therefore that a great battleship Navy is necessary in order to seize and hold such bases. And they also argue that the Navy must also use its vessels as supplemental mobile air bases, capable of taking on part of the job of strategic bombing in any future war. For this purpose, the admirals wish to build gigantic new carriers, capable of launching very high speed bombers big enough to deliver atomic bombs. It is reported that the tentative proposal is for flush deck carriers of about 80,000 tons, which would cost in the neighborhood of $200 millions apiece.

The airpower advocates reply to the admirals that the available land bases may be few and insecure, but that the insecurity of the Navy is still greater. Obviously, the big new carriers would be terribly vulnerable to air attack. Then, too, by the end of the war, the Germans had completed and tested a new, high speed submarine of great range, with virtually complete defense against radar detection. Under the guise of reparations, the Soviet secured virtually all the installations used by the Germans in building this submarine. They also secured over 150 of the submarines in disassembled form.

Russians Are Busy

It is known that the disassembled submarines have now been assembled. It is known that new submarines are being built. And it is known that almost all the leading German scientists and engineers who worked on this revolutionary underwater craft are now under contract to the Soviets.

In short, these submarines are the unseen, but extremely dangerous weapon of Soviet seapower. Furthermore, the naval tacticians frankly admit that great naval forces will be defenseless against this form of attack, unless and until some system of detection can be devised to overcome the new submarines' radar-proofing. But while the admirals agree to this mote in the Navy's eye, they reply in kind to the airpower men. It is also known the Soviets got the men and equipment for building the German high-speed, high-altitude jet fighter, which is a grim threat to attacking aircraft. In fact, the display of superior fighter strength at the most recent Red Army day celebration amazed and horrified American expert observers. Thus the debate goes on.

This debate has very practical meaning for the senators haggling over the European recovery program. In the first place, the debate disclosed that we shall be much less secure than most Americans suppose, if and when we let the rest of the world go smash. Even in this present brief interlude, when the weapons of total destruction are still probably an American monopoly, it is infantile to assume that "we'll be all right whatever happens, because we've got the bomb."

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Saturday, Jan. 22, 1938. When Japan has finished with China she will strike again and the victim may be America, England or Russia, H. R. Knickerbocker revealed in the fifth of a series of articles written by him on world affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bennett of South Vine street entertained the Lucky Twelve club.

William Elliott of South Vine street and Chester E. Evans of Lincoln avenue returned from Athens, where they had completed four years' of study toward degrees at Ohio university.

Mrs. Glen Penry, a past national president, Mrs. Robert Williams, chapter delegate, Mrs. Robert Heininger, Mrs. Newell Minard, Mrs. Robert Middleton, Mrs. Earl McWherter, Misses Louise Foreman, Mary Cook, Verna Mae Thomasson and Mary Guthrie, members of Gamma Mu chapter, Delta Theta Tau sorority, were attending a province convention of the sorority at Mansfield.

W. J. Weir, commander of Veterans Post, No. 3313, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Mrs. Weir, Joseph Morrison, post quartermaster, Mrs. Morrison, department assistant guard, Harry Baker, second district chief of staff and Mrs. Baker went to Akron to attend the annual mid-winter conference of the department of Ohio, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Sunday, Jan. 22, 1928.

Fire at the home of an unemployed man on Decatur street destroyed the entire family wardrobe on which no insurance was carried.

Miss Elizabeth Crissinger, student at Ohio State university, was a visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Crissinger of Oak Grove avenue.

Mrs. J. W. Klingel of Windsor street returned from Chicago, where she had been a visitor for three weeks at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stubbs.

Peter Lares, 64, died at his home on Monroe street.

A tea was given by the Business Women's club in the clubrooms on East Center street. The hostess committee included Miss Ruth Porter, Mrs. Olive O'Keeffe and Misses Sally Sheedy and Margaret Porter.

"Defense Union" Criticized

By Walter Lippmann

BOTH Mr. Baruch and Mr. Dulles have told Congress this week that economic revival in Europe requires a guaranty against the danger of aggression. They are agreed that a regional defense pact is the way to achieve this guaranty. Mr. Baruch would have "the countries of Europe—as many as are willing—band themselves into a political, economic and defense union under the United Nations" and he would have "the United States, and such others as will join us . . . guarantee . . . to go to war in joint defense if any of them are attacked."

MOLEY

There are, I venture to think, strong reasons for doubting whether this is a sound and practical way to achieve what is undoubtedly an urgent and desirable result: Namely to make certain that the masters of the Kremlin know that they must encounter the military power of the United States if they attempt military aggression.

My own view is that this proposed pact would not unite western Europe but would divide it even more deeply than it is today, that it would not strengthen but would weaken the security of western Europe.

It is, to begin with, self-evident that the only countries which could join such a defense union would be the 16 participating in the Marshall plan. But in fact not all of them could or would join. It is certain that Switzerland would not; her constitution prevents it. It is almost as certain that Sweden would not. Thus at the outset the co-operating nations would be divided into two groups—those within the military alliance and the neutrals outside it.

This disclosed the fallacy of the proposal. For supposing a country refuses to join the regional pact, would that mean that we would not defend it if it were attacked? Obviously Mr. Baruch does not mean that the nonjoiners will not be entitled to be defended. That would be tantamount to saying that it is not a vital interest of ours to prevent aggression except against those nations which have first signed up. Therefore it merely complicates our problem and the difficulties of the European nations to ask them to sign up as a precondition of the guaranty. For the crux of the matter is that the guaranty is necessary whether or not they sign up.

It's A Big Order

Nobody knows how many countries would in fact be willing to sign up. But we may be sure of one thing and that is that no country could afford to join such a regional pact without first obtaining from us a firm commitment, not only, as Mr. Baruch suggests, of our readiness to go to war, but also of our willingness to build up the armaments and to defend the territory of each and every one of them.

I think it is a reasonably safe guess that most of them would in fact refuse to sign up. Those that were willing to sign up would be bound to demand that in addition to civilian aid under the Marshall plan they be given fabulously expensive military aid under a revival of lend-lease. For this "defense union" would not increase their security; on the contrary it would increase their obligations, entangling them automatically in every conflict, denying them the chance to remain neutral, and exposing them to reprisal and occupation.

It would be far better, it seems to me, for the United States to deal directly with the Soviet Union in this matter—operating not on the principle of collective security but on that of the balance of power.

That would mean the building up of our own military capacity to reply to any military aggression by direct and sustained assault, and along with it a thorough explanation in Moscow, Belgrade and Warsaw that we shall permit no advance beyond the present lines held by the Soviet army; and that we shall increase our military striking power until there are peace treaties which agree to the withdrawal of all the non-European armies from the European continent.

They Add No Weight

If the United States cannot convince the Kremlin, then to add the signatures of a dozen weak European governments to another pact will not convince the Kremlin. What advantage, then, is there in subjecting our friends in western Europe—and the United Nations as a whole—to the cruel ordeal of having to decide formally and publicly whether they will defy the Soviet Union in order to qualify for our guaranty? Few of them can add any material force to the guaranty. Yet the bitter internal controversies which this proposal would arouse could only divert their attention from the task of economic reconstruction and reunion in Europe.

It has been said in support of the proposal that it would be on the model of the inter-American agreement at Rio de Janeiro. The analogy is, I submit, quite false. The inter-American agreement embraces all the American republics, and none in signing it was, therefore, joining a military alliance with one great military power opposed to its neighbors allied with another great military power. But that is just what a western European defense union would call for.

The real effect of injecting into western Europe the issues which this proposal raises would be to undermine the foundations of the Marshall plan. It would submerge economic co-operation under the military alliance, and would confirm the most serious charge which the Communists, and not only the

A Disturbance Cleared Up

A skipper, completing a trip across the Atlantic the other day, reported 40-foot waves rising from a smooth sea, with no wind, storm or whitecaps. There were no understandable explanations. The ship was tossed all over the lot in a dead calm, something never before noticed in his 35 years at sea.

PHILLIPS

Elmer Twitchell, the distinguished scientist, marine authority and gin rummy expert, has been investigating. He dismisses the belief that Russia must have been responsible.

* * *

"I went to work on the mystery promptly," said Dr. Twitchell today, "and considered the violent disturbance on a calm sea from all angles. A number of things could have caused it. At first I thought General Eisenhower had made a frank statement on the presidency.

* * *

"But investigation did not bear that out entirely. Then I figured that possibly Harry Truman, General Graham and Ed Pauley had been out on the presidential yacht debating the broad subject of ethics, but there was nothing in that.

* * *

"There was the possibility that a couple of hockey players had lost control and gone off a dock at the height of a pro game, and I thought, too, that the disturbance could have been caused by somebody discovering eggs at 60 cents a dozen along the seaboard.

* * *

"A learned scientist had been to Miami Beach recently and he suggested the disturbance could have been caused by the electric rabbit getting off the track and leaping into the Bay of Biscayne. Another fellow thought that 40-foot waves could be caused by a man ordering an auto and getting it immediately with no bonus.

* * *

"I considered the possibility that President Truman had allowed himself to be photographed in a grave moment without smiling, but that was immediately ruled out. Somebody suggested that the DiMarco Sisters had been practicing a new and louder type of harmony on the Fred Allen program.

* * *

"This led to a theory that this tremendous disturbance at sea could have been the result of Margaret Truman tackling an opera role too deep for her in the first place. That proved untrue. I considered the idea that Lujack had missed a forward pass, that a day had passed with no marital news among the Topping boys and that Henry Wallace had said 'I don't know' to some complicated international problem.

* * *

"Then it dawned on me. I put searchers to sea and they came in with the evidence in the form of a bottle tossed overboard. In it was the latest Pravda editorial. That did it."

This department hasn't had so many laughs in years as it had at the new revue "Make Mine Manhattan." Winter Sports

By TRUMAN TWILL

This is the height of the winter sports season. Do not send for illustrated booklet. Just join the parade of those having fun at home. Don't plan to bring skis. You won't need them.

That isn't the kind of winter sports we are talking about. These are the voluntary winter sports. No instruction needed.

For example, sliding down the front steps. For young and old. Open the door and dash out. Be gay and giddy. Whoops, ice—beautiful, slippery ice. Thud. Bung, wham, zing, crunch. You're on your way to the hospital. Wasn't that fun.

Ever try to get the lid off the garbage pail on a zero evening? More fun than snowshoeing in the Laurentians. And only a fraction of the cost. Anyone can learn. Dash for the place where the garbage can is. Admire the blue-white moon and the sparkling snow. Grab the lid firmly with a warm moist hand. Pinnng! Can't let loose, can you? Frozen fast, hay?

When you've recovered and are ready to get up out of bed you can play closing the window, one of the friskiest of all winter sports. This is where you leap out of bed like a kernel of wheat being shot from a gun in a breakfast-food factory, step on a thumb tack, do a 15-foot standing broad jump, slam down the window on your thumb, split your toe on the leg of the bed trying to get back under the covers before you cool off and never are the same again.

Some like to remove clinkers, a game of skill like slot machines. The idea is to get the clinker out of the furnace without dropping it on your toe. My, doesn't it smell delicious and nut-brown toasty! Isn't it lovely with its cherry-red glow. Never mind, the fire department will take care of everything when it arrives.

Millions participate in the winter sport called "Will the car start?" The answer is "No." The player pits his skill against the probability he doesn't have enough skill to win. The odds lengthen in geometric ratio after the temperature drops to 5 above. At zero, there is one chance in a thousand. At 1 below, one chance in 10 thousand. At 2 below, one chance in 100 thousand and so on.

Putting on overshoes is a dandy for the ladies, especially the fat ladies. More fun than Sun Valley! Why go to some expensive place to twist your knee on a ski run when you can twist your entire leg in your own home?

Fun, after all, is where you find it—sitting on your annex on a slippery place in the sidewalk, pushing cars out of snowdrifts, shoveling snow, battling ice, surviving another long, hard winter the long, hard way. Be a real man! Be a real woman! Be a real sap! Enjoy winter sports right around the home. No sun glasses needed. No fancy clothes. Nothing at all. Just patience.

TAX BILLS TO BE AT COUNTY BANKS

Payments Can Be Made on Feb. 9 and 10.

County Treasurer Marion E. Hinklin announced today Monday, Feb. 9, and Tuesday, Feb. 10, are the days when county taxpayers residing outside Marion may pay their taxes at designated banks in their own neighborhoods.

Prospect township tax bills will be payable at the Citizens Bank in Prospect.

Tax bills for Green Camp township will be payable at the Peoples Bank in Green Camp.

Taxpayers of Bowling Green, Montgomery, and Grand township may pay their taxes at the Campbell National bank at LaRue.

Claridon, Scott and Tully township taxpayers will find their tax bills at the Caledonia bank in Caledonia.

Treasurer Hinklin said that tax bills for the entire year will be on hand at each of these banks on Feb. 9 and 10 so that taxpayers wishing to pay for the full year may do so, although only bills for the first six months are due at this time.

Vote Gifts to 2 Funds At Pearl St. P.-T.A. Meet

Contributions were made to the Marion County Tuberculosis and Health association and the March of Dimes campaign at a meeting of the Pearl Street P.-T.A. Tuesday night. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Roland Leeper and for the program a trio composed of Mrs. Fanny Benson, Homer E. Huffman and George Lane contributed a musical program.

"Cooperation Rather than Rivalry" was the topic of a round table discussion by Hugh Hay, Dr. H. R. Finney, Miss Margaret Topliff and Mrs. Henry Schaeffer. Mrs. C. R. Pennisten acted as moderator. On display at the meeting were the school's basketball uniforms purchased by the P.-T.A. last year. The attendance banner was won by Mrs. Zelda Sweeney's second grade. Hosts for the social hour were the third and fourth grades.

Miss Kathleen Thomas, city health nurse, was guest speaker at a meeting of the Searchlight club Monday afternoon with Mrs. Leo A. Keller on Cummin avenue. She talked concerning the workings of the health department. Mrs. L. A. Robinson conducted devotions and members responded to roll call on the subject "Ways To Keep Fit." The club voted a donation to the Pan American Fellowship fund.

SCREEN STAR IN FOOD GIFT ROLE. American screen star Paulette Goddard is shown with food parcels which she is distributing to children at the Hague-Road school, Bethnal Green, London. The gifts were presented by the film actress on behalf of U. S. children who raised funds for their purchase.

Marion Chapter Of Secretaries In Meeting Here

OFFICERS of the Marion Chapter of the National Secretaries association were hostesses when the members met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Ferol Mae Burley of 359 South Grand avenue. Entertaining were Miss Kathryn Burke, president, Miss Mary K. Miley, vice president, Miss Martha Fabian, treasurer, Mrs. Marty Maner, recording secretary and Miss Burley, corresponding secretary.

The evening was spent discussing business problems of the chapter and hearing reports. Plans were made to complete the personnel records of the members so that as employment opportunities develop, they may receive the greatest possible benefit from chapter membership and obtain positions commensurate with their abilities and training.

It was decided to discontinue the monthly dinner meetings, substituting a varied educational and social program. Announcement was made of a district meeting of chapters in the Northeastern section of the United States to be held at the Staler Hotel in Cleveland Feb. 21 and 22, with Forest City chapter as the hostess group. Following the business session a buffet lunch was served.

Mt. Gilead Pastor Speaker at Iberia

Special to The Star

IBERIA—"Get all the knowledge you can but with it get character," Rev. L. Eugene Rush told an audience at the annual Iberia Rural Institute—Youth Forum on Friday night as he was presented by chairman Kenneth Grooms.

"Our most important crop in the rural community is our young people. We'd better go out with our young people than to go out hunting them. We need good leaders for the different youth groups, someone who is searching out worthwhile things for them to do," Rev. Rush said.

Following the talk, 16 Boy Scouts received promotions in a Scout Court of Honor, led by Rev. Rush, pioneer scoutmaster of the United States.

3 Unions Block Labor Peace—Refuse Wage Boost Already Accepted by 19 Other Railroad Unions!

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen and the Switchmen's Union of North America, representing 125,000 railroad employes, have refused to accept the offer of the Railroads of a wage increase of 15½ cents an hour.

This is the same increase awarded 1,000,000 non-operating employes by an arbitration board early in September, 1947.

This is the same increase accepted by 175,000 conductors, trainmen and switchmen by agreement on November 14, 1947.

Agreements have been made with 1,175,000 employes, represented by nineteen unions. But these three unions, representing only 125,000 men, are trying to get more. They are demanding also many new working rules not embraced in the settlement with the conductors and trainmen.

Incidentally, the Switchmen's Union of North America represents only about 7 per cent of all railroad switchmen, the other 93 per cent being represented by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and covered by the settlement with that union.

Strike Threat

The leaders of these three unions spread a strike ballot while negotiations were still in progress. This is not a picket vote but is taken by union leaders, and votes are signed by the employes in the presence of union representatives.

When direct negotiations failed, the leaders of these three unions refused to join the unanimous ...asking the National [illegible] ...is within the dispute, but the [illegible] ...tion at the request of the [illegible] ...unanimously recommended [illegible] ...being about a settlement. [illegible] ...15½ cents, [illegible] ...the conductors and trainmen. [illegible] ...the request of the [illegible] ...these unions. The [illegible] ...

...way Labor Act provides for the appointment of a fact-finding board by the President.

The railroads feel it is due shippers, passengers, employes, stockholders, and the general public to know that throughout these negotiations and in mediation, they have not only exerted every effort to reach a fair and reasonable settlement, but they have also met every requirement of the Railway Labor Act respecting the negotiation, mediation, and arbitration of labor disputes.

It seems unthinkable that these three unions, representing less than 10 per cent of railroad employes, and these among the highest paid, can successfully maintain the threat of a paralyzing strike against the interest of the entire country—and against 90 per cent of their fellow employes.

The threat of a strike cannot justify granting more favorable conditions to 125,000 employes than have already been put in effect for 1,175,000, nor will it alter the opposition of the railroads to unwarranted wage increases or to changes in working rules which are not justified.

A glance at the list shows what employes represented by the Engineers and Firemen make. They are among the highest paid in the ranks of labor in the United States, if not the highest.

Compare these wages with what you make!

Here is a comparison of average annual earnings of engineers and firemen for 1939 (prewar) and 1947. Also shown is what 1947 earnings would have been if the 15½ cents per hour increase, offered by railroads and rejected by the unions, had been in effect [illegible] and the entire pay [illegible]

CIO COUNCIL PICKS OFFICERS

Ellis Oiler Reelected President for Seventh Term at Annual Banquet.

The Marion Industrial Union Council CIO held its second annual banquet, Tuesday night at the Wesley Methodist church on Olney avenue.

Ellis Oiler, president of Local 1947, United Steel Workers of America, was reelected and installed to serve his seventh term as president of the council.

Other officers elected are: James Jenkins, first vice president; Harold Townsend, second vice president; William Cobb, recording secretary; Eugene Rogers, financial secretary; A. R. Barnhard, attendance secretary; Herbert Wade, guide; Jacob Hoffman, sergeant; Charles Pfieffer, trustee; Robert Sifritt, trustee; Elijiah Foster, trustee.

Mr. Townsend introduced Dr. Edwin Brown, pastor of Wesley church. He praised the CIO for its leadership in the struggle for the equality among racial and color group. He explained the need for closer ties between the churches and the workers, saying "There are not enough churches devoting their attentions toward the problems of the working class."

State Officer Speaks

Mr. Townsend then introduced William Lavelle, secretary, and Jacob Clayman, counsel of the Ohio CIO Council. Both are from Columbus.

Mr. Lavelle presided for installation of officers.

President Oiler introduced D. J. Finley of the Railroad Brotherhoods in Marion.

He urged all trade unions to combine their forces on the political action front, saying: "We must unite to overwhelm those forces of reaction that are responsible for the enactment of anti-labor legislation."

Mr. Oiler introduced Mr. Lavelle, who spoke on "Inflation." He explained labor's position in regard to inflation and said, "the industrialists are waging an intensive campaign of propaganda in an attempt to convince the American people that labor is to blame for the high cost of living." He cited statistics from the business publication, Business Week, in regard to the profits and the costs of production in various industries.

Cites Business Figures

He stated, "I have given you figures from this business publication which gives you a picture of the enormous growth of profits in relation to the cost of production, especially in the steel and auto industries."

He then compared the situation existingf during OPA with the situation now.

"The N.A.M. and U. S. Chamber of Commerce, through propaganda, first confused the people and then convinced them that price controls should be removed and of course congress then destroyed price control," he declared.

Mr. Lavelle declared "the savings of the wage earners have been reduced to such an extent that only a small percentage now have any savings. The purchasing power of the people has steadily declined since World War II and only the restoration of price controls can stem this spiral of rising prices," he concluded.

Congratulates Council

Mr. Clayman commended the Marion CIO council for its rapid progress.

In regard to the Taft-Hartley law, he charged "the law is purposely complicated and the authors intended it to be complicated for they know the miles of red tape labor unions are subjected to under it will involve them in legal proceedings that will cover an indefinite number of years. The authors of Taft-Hartley law intended the law to drain the treasuries of the unions."

He cited past experiences of organized labor prior to the Wagner act and said, "The history of unions prior to the enactment of the Wagner Act is a bloody history, but after the Wagner Act came into being, strife between management and labor was reduced."

He urged organized labor to intensify political action in the Eighth congressional district and charged, "your congressman from this district, Congressman Frederick C. Smith, voted against OPA in Congress."

President Oiler spoke in reference to political action and stated, "We are determined here in the Eighth district to unite on a progressive program and defeat the enemies of labor and the people in the state legislature and the congress." Sidney Pensner, member of Local 750, UAW, showed the movie films, "Seeds of Destiny," and "The Peoples Charter."

One hundred and eight guests, delegates and officers attended the banquet. The program opened with trumpet and piano music by Mrs. Zenabelle Messenger, a guest, and Eugene Pletcher, member of Local 750, UAW.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

WHERE 25 LEAPED TO SAFETY — This is the burned-out wreckage of a four-engine Lockheed Constellation airliner of Eastern Airlines that skidded on an icy runway yesterday, striking a snowbank and bursting into flames at Logan International Airport at Boston, Mass. Twenty passengers and five members of the crew leaped to safety into the snow.

33 BUSES WRECKED IN $750,000 FIRE

By The Associated Press

CHESTER, Pa., Jan. 22—Fire swept through the block-long garage and offices of the Southern Pennsylvania Bus. Co., today wrecking 33 buses and causing a loss of $750,000.

The blaze was confined to the building but the danger from 20 separate explosions was considered so great police ordered more than 3,000 persons from homes in the midcity area.

P. T. Reilly, vice president and general manager of the company who made the estimate of damage, said the fire apparently started when a bus being filled with gasoline burst into flames after an explosion.

More than 300 firemen from five Chester companies and seven nearby communities fought the blaze for three hours before bringing it under control about 4 a. m. (EST).

Two firemen were injured slightly. A third person, a bystander, was injured when he was knocked down by a fire hose.

Reilly said the explosions occurred within a 15-minute span, apparently from the gasoline tanks of buses that had been fueled for service today.

Altogether, 111 company buses were in the garage and on an adjoining parking lot when the fire started. Maintenance men were able to move 78 buses to safety. Reilly said the buses which were destroyed all were new and cost $18,000 each.

rounding counties. Final judging will be in Marion prior to Easter with Paul Whiteman judging the finalists at the Palace theater. The winner is to receive a trip to New York over the Easter weekend, with all expenses paid for her and her mother with complete Easter outfits for both. The winner and her mother will stay at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel and be given a specially arranged tour of New York.

Countywide Picnic

The second community event is to be a countywide farmers' and merchants' picnic at the fairgrounds to be scheduled tentatively for July 14 with games prizes and fun for all.

The third event will be two communitywide dollar days to be held by all Marion Merchants, Friday and Saturday, July 30 and 31.

The fourth event will be "Marion Days", on Sept. 2, 3, and 4 when exhibits by local manufacturers will be on view all over the city. During this three-day period local retailers will stage a citywide sales event with special window displays and banners decorating the stores.

The fifth and final event will be a bigger and better Christmas parade scheduled for Nov. 20, which will be attempted on a larger scale than last year's parade.

Other speakers in the presentation of the "Boost Marion" program were Robert T. Mason, president of the Chamber of Commerce and Preston Crews of the Howard Swink advertising agency.

The coming Institute of Retail Training program was explained by Miss Murl E. Frye, coordinator of distributive education at Harding High school.

The dinner meeting was preceded by a cocktail party given by Radio Station WMRN.

Ferguson Asks Hurry Up Of Speculator List

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 — Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) said today he has asked Secretary of Agriculture Anderson to hurry up with a promised list of federal and state workers who have been active in the commodity markets.

Anderson asked brokerage houses all over the country in December to supply by Jan. 3 the names of all government employes or members of their immediate families who have commodity accounts.

He requested complete records by Jan. 11 for delivery to a senate appropriations subcommittee headed by Ferguson.

Noting that 11 days have passed since that deadline, Ferguson said he wrote Anderson late last week asking him to speed up delivery of the lists. To date he has had no reply, Ferguson told reporters.

Ohio Polio Cases Rose Sharply In 1947, Report Shows

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 22 — Polio in Ohio during 1947 exceeded any previous annual total by 25 per cent and the 1,478 cases were more than for any other state, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis disclosed today.

Only 192 cases had been reported Aug. 30, but the number tripled within the next two weeks, and 213 Ohioans were stricken in the week ending Sept. 13.

The National Foundation said many Ohio chapters' treasuries were wiped out and $131,562 in epidemic aid was sent. Additionally, current March of Dimes funds are being allotted to continue treatment of residual cases.

Summit county's 375 victims was the greatest number for a single county.

The report said Western Reserve university had received grants of $161,268 in 10 years to study the influence of polio virus on nerve cells. Appropriations totalling $79,956 have been made to Children's Hospital Research Foundation and the University of Cincinnati for virus research.

Navajo Indian, Reputed 137 Years Old, Dies

By The Associated Press

SAN PATRICIO, N. M., Jan. 22 —Francis Saiz, Navajo Indian reputed to be 137 years old, died last night.

The Indian, who had worked as a cowboy and sheepherder in his youth, died at the home of Simon Sanchez near here. He became acquainted with the Sanchez family in the 1860's.

A girl reporter, Miss Mary Nell Taeger of the Ruidoso, N. M., Weekly News, recently interviewed Saiz and checked his story with pioneer residents. At that time she said she was convinced of his age. She reported he was still active, attended to his personal needs, and ate three heavy meals a day with his third set of natural teeth.

LAUSCHE ANNOUNCEMENT IS "SCHEDULED" AGAIN

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 22—That Lausche rumor is here again.

The Ohio State Journal today quoted a Cleveland ward leader as saying former Gov. Frank J. Lausche was expected to announce his candidacy for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination tonight.

The Journal reported Mrs. Florence Holmes Bey said Lausche would be the principal speaker at a 15th ward Democratic club banquet in Cleveland.

"And by the way," the Journal quoted, "Lausche was supposed to have announced Wednesday, so we expect it tomorrow."

Lausche, reached at his Cleveland home, commented:

"I have nothing to say."

HEALTH OFFICER DEBUNKS SULPHUR FUMIGATION

By The United Press

SAN FRANCISCO—Remember those times 20 or 30 years ago when dad used to shoo everybody out after a case of measles or some other child's disease, close the house tight and fumigate with sulphur?

Dr. J. C. Geiger, San Francisco health officer, says dad was wasting his time. He might as well have burned an old pair of bedroom slippers as sulphur candles for all the good it did.

Sulphur is no good for fumigation, Dr. Geiger said. He admitted sulphur fumes would kill mosquitoes and make fleas unhappy for a short time. But germs are totally unaffected and cockroaches practically thrive on sulphur, he added.

BEVIN SAYS RUSSIAN DRIVE LEADS TO WAR

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Jan. 22 — Foreign Secretary Bevin said today that Soviet Russia is making a ruthless drive to dominate Europe and that this will lead inevitably to another World War.

"We are driven to that conclusion," Bevin told the house of commons.

"The Marshall program has brought to light vividly what must have been under the surface all the time."

"Evolution of the Yalta decisions," Bevin told the house of commons, "reveals a policy on the part of the Soviet Union to use every means in their power to get Communist control on eastern Europe and, as it now appears, in the west as well."

Bevin opened a two-day debate on foreign affairs, amid reports Britain may soon propose a political, economic and military alliance with France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

TRUMAN AND HOOVER DISAGREE ON ERP

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22—President Truman said today he is not at all in accord with former President Herbert Hoover's views that European Recovery Commitments should be limited to 15 months and cut below $6,800,000,000.

That is about all he would say when reporters sought comment at a news conference on the recommendations Mr. Hoover made yesterday the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Asked specifically for his reaction, he said he simply does not approve of Mr. Hoover's statement.

In response to other questions, Mr. Truman said:

1. He read the recommendations of Bernard M. Baruch with pleasure and approves of those that are in line with his own European and domestic economic programs.

Baurch, New York financier and adviser to presidents, recommended to the senate committee on Tuesday that the United States undertake a vigorous anti-inflation drive at home as part of gobal "peace-waging."

2. President Charles E. Wilson of the General Motors Corporation is living in 1890. That comment came when the President was told that Wilson has proposed lengthening the work week. Mr. Truman noted there are two Wilsons —the head of General Motors and President Charles E. Wilson of the General Electric company. The latter, he said, is more realistic.

VA Opens On-Farm GI Training to Partners

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22—The Veterans Administration opened its farm management training program today to two-man farm partnerships.

Hitherto, the program has been limited to one war veteran per farm, the veteran being the owner or having economic control of the farm.

Because of this limitation, brothers who lived on the same farm have had to divide the property if they wished to take GI Bill on-farm training which combines classroom instruction with practical farming.

Now, the agency has ruled, two veterans may qualify from the same farm if they are bona fide partners, with equal authority in farm management.

Grable Extortionist Indicted by Court

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 22—Mrs. Jane Bean, 20, was indicted yesterday on charges of sending an extortion letter through the mail to actress Betty Grable.

Mrs. Bean, who came here recently from Kaufman, Tex., was arrested two weeks ago by FBI agents who charged she sent a letter threatening to kidnap Miss Grable's seven-month-old daughter, Jessica, unless the actress paid $5,000.

FREMONT WOMAN SCHOOL PRINCIPAL SEEKS OFFICE

By The Associated Press

FREMONT, O., Jan. 22—Miss Esther Hardy, principal at Hayes elementary school the last 25 years, announced her candidacy for the Republican nomination as state representative yesterday. She explained she intends "to learn the practical phase of the nation's political system" after "teaching children democracy for more than 25 years."

RFC Extension Urged by Jones

Would Make It Independent, Responsible Only To Congress.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22—The Reconstruction Finance Corporation should be extended beyond June 30 as an "independent lending agency responsible only to congress," former Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones told a senate banking subcommittee today.

RFC has continuing usefulness, Jones declared, not only as a source of needed business loans, when private loans are not available, but to help prevent bank and other credit from drying up.

Jones, who was RFC's boss in his wartime post as federal loan administrator, defended the agency's record in a statement replying to a series of questions by Senator Buck (R-Del), chairman of the subcommittee which is weighing whether to extend RFC beyond its mid-year expiration date.

Tells of Mistakes

The Houston business leader said neither the federal reserve board nor the treasury should have control over RFC. He ascribed some wartime mistakes to President Roosevelt's tendency to grant such directive authority to emergency agencies, explaining:

"Some of these agencies soon began to drool for money to spend, and some of them were able to persuade the president—a very busy man and a fairly free spender —to give them authority to direct the RFC without regard to the judgment of its own directors, and unlimited amounts.

"Most of these men were well intentioned and competent. Some of them were dreamers, reformers and pure theorists. Authority given these was unfortunate and costly."

Jones did not testify in person. His statement said a "rather prolonged and insistent cold" made travel from Houston inadvisable.

Referring to charges of loose bookkeeping made in 1946 and later by Comptroller General Lindsay Warren, Jones declared the criticism was damaging and "largely unjustified."

DEATH MARCH SURVIVOR TO RUN FOR CONGRESS

By The Associated Press

MOUNT VERNON, O., Jan. 22—Robert W. Levering, Mount Vernon attorney and survivor of the Bataan death march, today accepted the invitation of Democratic chairmen of the six-county 17th district to become a candidate for the party nomination for district congressman.

As candidate, he will run in November against Rep. J. Harry McGregor, West Lafayette Republican who has been in congress since 1940 and is unopposed for renomination.

In a letter to county chairmen of the district, the 33-year-old Levering said:

"We, who were on Bataan and saw the Stars and Stripes hauled down in humiliating defeat, made a pledge to each other, that if we ever got back we would do something about it so that it would never happen again. I feel I am keeping faith with the thousands who didn't return in accepting the candidacy for congress in the 17th Ohio district."

Hagana Kills 12 In Attack on Arab Town

By The Associated Press

JERUSALEM, Jan. 22 — Hagana, Jewish militia, said it attacked the Arab villeage of Yazur and killed 12 Arabs today after seven Jewish settlement police were slain at a roadblock at the edge of town.

Yazur is about five miles south of Tel Aviv on the main road to Jerusalem. Officials confirmed the Hagana report that seven Jewish settlement police were shot or stabbed to death and said four others were wounded there. They reported only three of the Arab attackers killed.

Today's casualties boosted to 951 the unofficial count of violent dead in Arab-Jewish fighting since the United Nations decided Nov. 2) to partition the Holy Land.

SOVIET OFFER

ern Bucovina without what the Germans considered adequate consultation. The Germans objected, too, when the Soviets casually took over a strip of Lithuania which had been assigned to Germany.

From the first page of the state department volume to the last entry the theme is one of Russian efforts to be friendly with Germany.

In the opening document Russian Ambassador Merekolov had called at the German foreign office in April, 1939, and suggested that closer relations were possible between the two powers.

From that beginning developed Soviet-German trade talks, then political negotiations, the non-aggression pact, the secret agreements on the partitioning of Poland and the Baltic countries, the almost-succesful negotiations for a four-power Axis pact and finally the rapid breakdown of relations ending in war.

In the very last document, another Russian ambassador, Dekanosov, was trying to get an explanation from the Germans as to what had gone wrong and why war had arrived.

He called on Ribbentrop in the foreign office at Berlin at 4 a. m. on the day the Germans attacked Russia. He asked for explanations but received a brush off. Ribbentrop said he regretted "he had not succeeded in creating sensible relations between the two countries."

MAUMEE WATERSHED DISTRICT MEET SET

By The Associated Press

DEFIANCE, O., Jan. 22—Representatives of all counties in the proposed Maumee watershed conservancy district will meet here Feb. 3 to discuss possible financing of a preliminary survey independent of the district.

Court hearings on establishment of the district have been recessed to Feb. 24.

Dale Jennings, Allen county commission chairman, proposed the survey today, but said his county still was against participation. Defiance county commissioners agreed to co-sponsor the project.

Jennings said Allen county would not object to formation of a district of all counties favorable such a project.

The meetings Feb. 3 will determine definitely if other counties will join in creating an independent fund sufficient for the survey. Defiance county commissioners estimated the probable cost at $35,000.

Miller Gains Strength In Democratic Party

By The Associated Press

SPRINGFIELD, O., Jan. 22—Ray T. Miller's bid for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination now has a dozen formal endorsements from county organizations and party chairmen of another 4 counties have promised their support, his campaign manager Joseph E. Hurst, said today.

The Clark county Democratic executive committee was the latest to jump on the Miller bandwagon, coming out for Miller after he addressed Seventh congressional district Democratic leaders last night.

Miller, one-time Cleveland mayor, proposed a "comprehensive statewide survey" of the entire mental health field and charged that the state "has fallen far behind" in care of the mentally ill.

3RD ROBBERY IN 4 YEARS

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, Jan. 22 — Two men held up the Pleasant Ridge Building and Loan association yesterday, the third time the institution was robbed in four years. Secretary Fred Wormus estimated the latest loss at between $200 and $500 in cash. The gunmen forced three employes to kneel facing a wall.

Parking Meter Trouble Cuts Bucyrus Revenue

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, Jan. 22 — Because revenue from the city's parking meters has dropped off approximately $100 a month during recent weeks, city council Tuesday sought an explanation and when advised that the meters were not working satisfactorily requested Police Chief Arthur Stuckert to make investigations of other types of meters available.

Meter revenue in 1947 was $300 less than in the previous year in spite of the additional 21 meters installed during the year, Chief Stuckert reported.

They are: Wilson Edward Amick, 24, of near Edison, a veteran of three years service in the U. S. Army; and Robert Butler, 19, of 672 Hocking street. Both men are now at the U. S. Naval Training Center at Great Lakes, Ill., undergoing recruit training.

NEW WATER WORKS ASKED AT BUCYRUS

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, Jan. 22—Acting on a proposal by Mayor R. L. Hertzer for replacing the city's water works plant with a modern plant, members of city council made a tour of inspection of the water works Wednesday. The mayor's proposal was presented to city council Tuesday and included a suggestion for securing a $200,000 loan for financing the plant along with $180,000 now unincumbered from the city's second mortgage on the present plant. The mayor suggested that a new plant could be secured for $260,000 which would leave a reserve of $120,000 which would be available for further replacing wooden mains.

In support of his suggestion, Mayor Hertzer presented a report prepared by City Chemist John Lower which pointed out that a third reservoir to supplement the two present storage reservoirs is advisable if factories are to be encouraged to locate here. The $260,000 rebuilding cost would include a new filtration and softening plant, new pumps and new electric motors.

The chemist's report also called attention to the condition of the settling tanks which he said were beyond reliable service without costly repairs. Filters built 34 years ago are also in bad condition, he said.

Mayor Hertzer pointed to the $18,000 annual revenue from the water plant which he said would go far toward the replacements. Already 10 miles of old wooden water mains have been replaced since 1943, leaving approximately 14 miles yet to be replaced.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

From Sheepskin to Sheep

There aren't too many college graduates in our town. Good honest thinking, yes...but most folks went from high school into farming.

No harm in that! But I admire veterans like Dick Newcomb... who's 23, but going to college under the G.I. Bill of Rights. Intends to be a sheep farmer—but a better-informed, more scientific farmer, with more know-how!

And veterans like Dick aren't letting anything interfere. What little relaxation they allow themselves is in the form of needed exercise, or books, or conversation and an occasional glass of beer with friends.

Seems as if, just by having their education postponed, they've put a higher value on it... and on things like temperance (that glass of beer, for instance), understanding, and good citizenship. And from where I sit, when Dick gets his sheepskin—he won't have lost much time. He'll be an even better farmer than his Dad. (Exactly what Dad wanted!)

Galion Library Board Reelects Officers

Special to The Star

GALION—Officers were reelected, and one new member chosen to the board of trustees, at the annual meeting of the Galion Public Library association this week. The board also heard an interesting report by the librarian, Miss Elizabeth Allwardt who was again elected to serve in this capacity after serving as librarian for the past 17 years.

Officers are: president, Mrs. John Wisterman; vice president, Mrs. H. H. Freese; secretary, Miss Blossom Burgert; treasurer, Mrs. Loren E. Beck. Two trustees, Mrs. Albert Cox and Mrs. Roy Arter, were reelected for three-year terms along with Mrs. Harvey Sherer who was elected for the same period of time.

The Galion public library is a Carnegie library, dedicated in 1904, at which time the association was organized, and books which had been kept in the old high school building on South Union street were placed in the new building.

CONCILIATOR ASSIGNED

By The Associated Press

CANTON, O., Jan. 22—Federal Labor Conciliator Horace C. Yokoun has been assigned to participate in wage negotiations between the Ohio Power Co. and the Electrical Service Employes Union (Ind.), representing the firm's Canton division workers. Company officials said they were unable to bargain with the union because of a CIO petition for a bargaining election.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

By AP Newsfeatures

YEHUDI MENUHIN, born Jan. 22, 1916, was a child prodigy violinist. Now he is hailed as a musical genius.

He studied violin at the age of four, was soloist with a orchestra at San Francisco eight and played in Carnegie Hall at 10. Son of a teacher of Hebrew, he was privately educated. Except for two years from 1933 to 1937 when he "retired" to his California ranch, his life has been linked to the concert stage.

Cleveland AFL Votes Down Back Wallace Bid

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Jan. 22 — The Cleveland Federation of Labor, AFL central body, last night voted down a resolution calling upon the federation to support Henry A. Wallace's third party movement.

The resolution was introduced by Ernest Paskell, a delegate from the Typographical union, who emphasized that it represented his own individual opinion and did not in any way necessarily represent the sentiments of his union.

Engineers Executive Committee Has Meeting

Guest at a meeting of the executive committee of the Marion chapter, Ohio Society of Professional Engineers, Monday in the offices of Floyd G. Browne in the Marion building was Lloyd A. Chacey of Columbus, executive secretary of the Ohio Society. S. W. Kuhner, president of the Marion chapter, was in charge of the meeting and county representatives were present from Marion, Delaware, Union and Morrow counties. Plans were formulated to institute legal proceedings against violators in this area of the engineer registration law of the State of Ohio. The next meeting of the executive committee will be Feb. 16 in Delaware.

SHE JUST FELL

By The United Press

INDIANAPOLIS — As they treated the head injury of a 13-year-old girl and muttered aloud what should be done to such a heartless hit-run driver, police were startled when the victim spoke up and said, "I wasn't hit by a car. I fell over the curb."

Willie Jerew was top kegler at the Marion Rec on Monday night as he took high game in both single and series with 208 and 551. Jerew, who bowls for Spotless Cleaners, and Krucheberg were the only bowlers in the Home league to top 200.

At the Palace bowling alleys, Dorothy Rhinehart was tops in women's single games with 202 while Mary Prior was high in three games with 509. All told, there were 31 games bowled in the Monday Nite Ladies league that went over 150 in singles, and nine games over the 450 mark in series.

The Ohio Public Service league high for women was set by Edna Miller with 143 single and by Betty Burke in series with 390. Men's series high was taken by Yinger with 579 while Garver had high single with 224. Humphreys, Ulsh, Daniels and Kerr also had a 200 or better in single games.

H. Little did it again last night for the Planers in bowling at the Palace Rec when he rolled 579 to top the series scores. P. Owens was high in the Shovel league, bowling 238 single for the Lathes' team while five other keglers went over 200 in the same league.

Sportsman's league bowlers were led by Yoder, 599, and Tennant 600, in series score. Six others had better than 200 in singles with Yoder topping the list with his 251.

Mary Prior rolled 169 and 455 to lead the Marion Engineer Women's league in both single and series. The afternoon Shovel league was led by E. Jones with a 505 series and by P. Smith with a 192 single.

Patrol Corporal On Jr. C. of C. Program

Corporal Thomas B. Morgan, of the Marion sub-station of the State Highway Patrol was guest speaker Tuesday night at the monthly dinner meeting of the Marion Junior Chamber of Commerce at the Y.M.C.A. He spoke on "Operations of the Highway Patrol."

President Jack Lautenslager announced that George W. Brittian past state president of the Jaycees and winner of the outstanding state president award for 1947 given by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce, will be the speaker at the annual "Bosses Night" dinner to be held Feb. 17 at the Y.M.C.A.

Ray Coleman reported on the work of the state safety committee of the Jaycees which he attended at Columbus Sunday. The report on the Marion "Talking Dummy" traffic safety project as employed here was well received by Jaycees of other cities, Mr. Coleman said.

...turally one ... symptomatic ...erally on ...egitimate ef... to further ...e. However, ... proposal by ...ember of par...ent strikes ...land appar... struck Mr. ...eel as indicating a misunder...ding of the exact nature of ... conflict between Russia and ...western allies. Since that lack ...derstanding is widespread it's ... that we take a look at it.

"...hy wouldn't such a conference ...likely to advance matters at ...ent"? Well, the cold fact is ... Soviet Russia is in process ...waging an offensive against ...democracies for the spread of ...mmunism, and hasn't the slight...idea of abandoning it. This ...mun has emphasized that ...r before, but it takes a lot of repeating. So let's pin it down again.

WE ARE IN THE MIDST of the world revolution which the bolshevists projected when they won their revolt in 1917 and established a Soviet regime in Russia. A couple of years later they set up the comintern, or general staff for world revolution, which was active until 1943 when Moscow announced that it was being abolished. The recently created cominform, which comprises the Communist parties of nine European countries and was organized under direction of Russia, is widely believed to be in effect a revival of the comintern. It's immediate object is announced as defeat of the Marshall plan for rehabilitation of western Europe—a defeat which would advance the Red cause immeasurably.

Don't forget that the last World War was precipitated when Moscow signed a non-aggression pact with Hitler, and they agreed in advance to divide Poland between them. Nazi Foreign Minisetr Von Ribbentrop testified at his war crimes trial at Neurnberg that Moscow also offered to join Hitler against the western allies, but said that the Russian price was too high. Anyway the war started, but Hitler became suspicious of Moscow's intentions and attacked Russia.

THE WAR CREATED the European chaos which was exactly suited to the spread of Communism. Even before the conflict ended, Russia was busy establishing Communist governments in eastern European countries occupied by Soviet troops. As a matter of fact most of the Red advance was achieved by the time peace came. Since then Moscow has been consolidating that ground and laying plans for conquest of western Europe.

Do you think that the Soviet Union is going to halt her world revolution at this crucial stage? Not by a jug full! She is going to fight the Marshall plan with everything she has, and not until that plan has succeeded, and made western Europe safe, will any conference among the Big Four chiefs of state be worth a moment's consideration. As a matter of fact any overtures by the western democracies now would look like appeasement and would do more harm than good.

So there's the twice-told tale, and if necessary this column will tell it again because our security depends on recognition of these facts.

LIPPMANN

Communists, make against the Marshall plan.

Yet that plan, as Secretary Marshall has said several times and ought now to say again, is designed to draw Europe together, not to divide it, and it is quite unworkable—as any one who will study it can see for himself—if the existing division of Europe is accentuated and crystallized.

Roving Reports

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

"It must be the other guy he means."

That was one quick reaction abroad to a recent account in this column by a "Berlin Charley" of how American men and women take part in Germany's black market.

A letter from a newspaper colleague in the German capital reports that "Berlin Charley's" cynical picture "raised indignant flushes as well as embarrassed blushes" over there.

Hal Boyle

The indignant flushes, he said, were on the faces of the Americans in Germany who aren't in the black market and have not resorted to the tactics the Nazis once used themselves to plunder occupied countries.

Presumably the "embarrassed blushes" belong to those who are playing the black market.

My colleague objected, however, that accounts like that given by "Berlin Charley" failed to mention the thousands of conscientious American military government employes in Germany who never made a dishonest dollar. He said they feel the home folks give no credit "to the drab but worthy performance of a job well-done," and added:

"A high military government official, commenting on the latest black market investigation which is now being conducted by Judge E. Earl Rives of Greensboro, N. C., as a special representative of Secretary of the Army Kenneth Royall, observed:

"OF COURSE, there's a black market here, as everywhere else in Europe, and many Americans are in it. So are other nationalities. But it seems to me that I've also heard about a black market in the United States—in automobiles and other things—and that's in the richest country in the world.

"We have 150,000 Americans in Germany — a country beset by privation and want, where millions of people, distrusting their currency, offer fantastic prices for food and cigarets. Temptation is great — greater than any ever known in the U. S. But there are thousands of Americans in Germany who never yielded to temptation, and it can be proved that the crime rate here is lower than for a comparable number of people in America."

"There are thousands of people here, Hal, who work seven days a week at their job. There are tens of thousands who, out of their own pockets, are feeding German families—and we don't mean tossing a chocolate bar to a fraulein for favors.

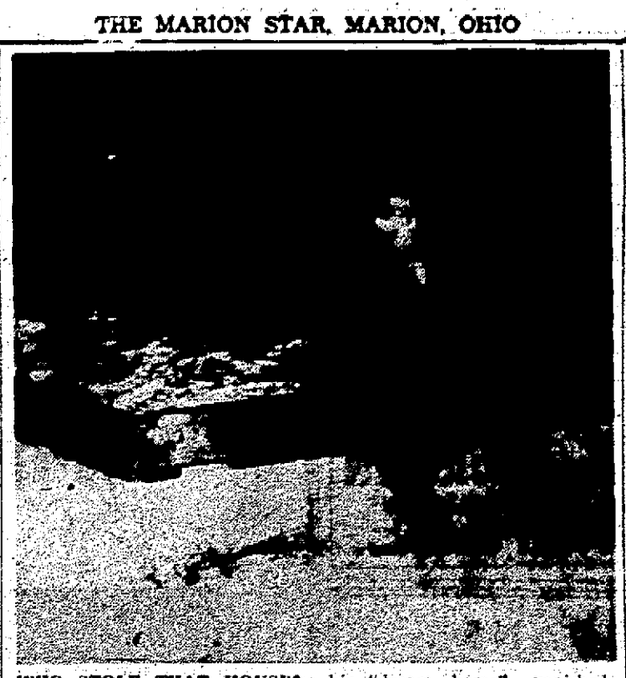
"COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA here incessantly tries to make the point that Americans and their wives are 'looting' Germany, but the fact remains that the Americans and British alone among the occupying forces pay their own way in dollar and sterling instruments. They aren't living off the German economy—as for instance the Russians—but in the last year poured in more than half a billion dollars worth of food. Just ask the Germans if they feel the Americans are looting them. Ask the Germans if they would like to see the Americans leave Berlin. That latter possibility is now one of their greatest fears."

My friend then goes on to acknowledge that American wives are buying China and figurines but that some of them just do so in order to furnish their homes (Army supplies frequently aren't sufficient) and that dozens of Germans needing money and food come to their doors offering the treasures.

HE SAYS it is also true that many Americans have imported thousands of pounds of coffee to barter with Germans in exchange for cameras, rings and other items. He also says one officer recently was fired out of the theater after he was caught trying to send home 20 crates of china he had traded in return for about a ton of coffee.

Well, that's the kind of people "Berlin Charley" meant. Guys like him and the lady who tried to send home seven grand pianos. That's the kind the present Army inquiry is after.

The others — the ones doing their jobs and refraining from capitalizing on human misery—are making for America the friends she needs today everywhere.



WHO STOLE THAT HOUSE? James C. Peterson, 38-year-old veteran who works as a crane operator in Detroit, sits morosely on the foundation from which his "dream home" vanished. He had completed the entire framework, three walls and half the rough flooring, but found little left when he returned from a brief vacation.

Scout Troop No. 1 Presented Charter

Troop 1, Boy Scouts, sponsored by the Marion Lodge of Elks, was presented its thirty-seventh charter in a presentation program held Monday night in the lodge hall. It is recognized as the oldest troop in the Harding Area Council. Scoutmaster is Robert Montague.

James Frew, district Scout committeeman, made the presentation of the charter to Karl Konkle, chairman of the troop committee. Other district officers present were Owen Meddles, field executive, Walter Lingo, committeeman, and O. Anderson, neighborhood commissioner. Fire Chief Owen Sifritt, a troop committeeman was also present.

Registration cards showing that they are members of the Boy Scouts in the Marion district were presented to 18 boys. Seven troop committeemen also received cards. They are Mr. Konkle, Chief Sifritt, L. R. Amrine, R. M. Miller, Robert Grove, Clifford Borland and Robert Haldeman.

Mr. Montague gave a talk on accomplishments of the troop during the past year and plans for the future. Mr. Lingo also gave a talk on Scout crafts.

"First, furnish your home"—

Our furniture has eye-appeal and buy-appeal at savings!

Although we are a small town store we have sought the same high grade markets as the best furniture buyers in the city. We can continue doing this top-grade merchandising at a low, sensible mark-up because of our lean overhead—and, because of our quick turn-over in merchandise. Good furniture, well chosen for style and color, and "manufacturer", will always have buyers awaiting it's arrival. Our old customers know they can always depend on finding the best—the furniture with eye-appeal—priced at a sensibly low mark-up.

WHY PAY HIGH PRICES ?

Tire Prices Higher Today
Cost list and resale price increases motivated by rising raw materials, manufacturing, transportation, selling and distribution costs, became effective Monday at the Tire & Rubber Co.
Tire Co. Orders Price Increase
AKRON, NOV. 8— Tire & Rubber Co. today announced retail and wholesale prices on auto and truck tires will go up 7½ per cent, effective Monday, with tractor and industrial tires moving up 5 per cent.
At the same time, authoritative trade sources confidently predicted that all other rubber concerns would follow suit — with increases running as high as 10 per cent.
Rubber Trouble
RECENTLY rubber products, principally tires, have been advanced in price due to an increase in the cost of natural rubber. The natural product had fallen in past months to 14 cents a pound, four cents less than the cost of synthetic rubber made in our own government plants. Now natural rubber has been pushed back to 23½ cents a pound had, at the same time, production from our government-owned synthetic plants has fallen to the point where it is in short supply, having been reduced almost by a [illegible] last July.
Rubber Shortage
Synthetic Turns Scarce, Surprised Tire Makers Scramble for Stocks
J. S. Cut Output Thinking Tire Demand Would Dip, Natural Would Be Cheap
Tire manufacturers have suddenly found themselves smack in the middle of a synthetic rubber shortage. It's the first such [illegible]

Harriet Beecher Stowe Tent Meets at Y.M.C.A.

Guests present at a meeting of Harriet Beecher Stowe Tent No. 48, Daughters of Union Veterans, Tuesday at the Y.M.C.A. included Mrs. Rozolla Babbs of Marion, president of District No. 6, Mrs. Martha Jeffers, president of the Richwood tent of D. of U. V., and Mrs. Elva Showalter, president-elect of the Bucyrus tent. Mrs. Babbs installed Mrs. Brittie Warne as council member, Mrs. Emma Wedertz as guide, Mrs. Alma Anderson as first colorbearer, and Mrs. Leona Claypool as second colorbearer. One application for membership was received. A program was in charge of Mrs. Pearl Schwartz, patriotic instructor. Reports were made by a special committee on sale of rag rugs throughout the year, funds from which are used for the project of aid to City hospital.

It was reported that last year's purchases for the hospital included an electrically cooled drinking fountain and two wheelchairs. A recent sewing meeting at the home of Mrs. Jenny Reid was for the project of making a layette for some needy family. Anouncement was made that initiation will be held at the second meeting in February, the next regular session.

Jessie Buckley Class Meets at Snyder Home

The Jessie Buckley class of Central Christian church was entertained Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Frank Snyder on Oak street. Mrs. Forrest Flickenger presided and annual committee reports were given.

Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held in April. Named on a finance committee for the coming year which will also be in charge of the rummage sale were Mrs. Frank Harrold, chairman, Mrs. Dollie Tibbals, Mrs. Robert Hedges, Mrs. W. C. Tucker, Mrs. Millard Hunt, Mrs. Karl Lundquist, Mrs. Ernest Elliott and Miss Pearl Eberhart. The class voted to assist in furnishing flowers for the church during the year.

Mrs. J. G. Cunningham, in charge of the worship period, discussed the topic, "Ambassadors for Christ." During the social hour, contest awards were won by Mrs. Elmer Weimer and Mrs. Cunningham. The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. H. J. Hartsell, Mrs. W. C. Tucker and Mrs. E. E. Ferry. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Tom Leib on South Prospect street.

LARUE YOUTH FOR CHRIST

A meeting of the Youth for Christ group of LaRue will hold a meeting and banquet Jan. 31, in the LaRue school auditorium it was announced today. Tickets for the banquet go on sale this week by members of the organization. A program of music and entertainment will be presented. The banquet is being sponsored by the Methodist and Baptist churches of LaRue and is open to the public.

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

STEAD of answering Philip Veritzen directly, Mr. "K." ked at Dicky and me. I understood that you wished to e down to your apartment before you left," he said.

"We certainly do," Dicky told him, emphatically, and he turned back to the Lansfield's owner.

"You see," he said, "Mrs. Graham does not wish to leave until she is sure that her father's guards are on the job at the apartment, and I think it is indicated that I accompany her husband in escorting her. I can assure her that we will not stay longer than two minutes in the apartment, for I am sure, knowing 'the Chief,' that the guards he is placing in the hotel ought to be here at any minute."

The door knocker sounded, putting a period to his sentence, and Philip Veritzen went to the door, and after a brief, low colloquy returned, with an apologetic smile at Mr. "K."

"You called the turn," he said. "The 'Chief's' guards have arrived. The two for this apartment said that two others were already outside the Graham apartment."

"I thought so," Mr. "K." said. "And now, if we may be excused, we will go down to the Graham apartment. What do you want done with the hotel guard you placed down here? He will not be needed now."

"Tell him to report to Olsen," Philip said. Then he hesitated, looking at the bound and blindfolded men on the floor.

"What do we do?" he asked, with a gesture of his hand toward the prisoners.

"Nothing, except watch them," Mr. "K." rejoined. "And only one of you need watch at a time. I don't think there's a chance in the world of their trying anything, but it's better to keep one eye on them. They might try to wriggle themselves free from their ropes, but I'm pretty sure they won't."

He stood up and beckoned to Dicky and me.

"We might as well get going," he said. At the door he turned to Philip Veritzen, waiting to let us out.

"It might be a good idea to keep this door open the length of the night chain," he said. "Then you could call the guards if you should need them, which I am very sure you won't. But sit where no one in the hall can see you."

I felt an icicle slithering down my spine. I did not know what the Philip Veritzens thought of his warning, but to me he might as well have said: "Keep out of range of a possible bullet."

It was not my business, however, to interpret Mr. "K.'s" meaning to Philip and Olga. So I kept my lips tightly closed. But I was ashamed of the uneasy glances I shot at the shadowed places in the corridor.

"We'll obey your orders," Philip Veritzen said, and his tone told me that he had not grasped the significance of Mr. "K.'s" warning. But I could not forget it, and I was relieved indeed when the three of us reached the apartment where we had left Faith and Mary under Katharine's watchful guardianship.

My father's guards, men whom I knew by sight, were standing unobtrusively in the corners of the corridors, and saluted us as we came up.

"Everything quiet so far?" Mr. "K." asked.

"Yes," one of the men answered. "We knocked on the door here, but nobody answered."

"They were instructed not to answer," the FBI man told them. "We'll arrange some signaling knocks for you in a minute or two. Now, Mrs. Graham, if you'll get us admitted, please. You have a code knock for Mrs. Bickett, haven't you?"

"HAP'S" NEW LOOK. Displaying a flashing smile and flashier headgear, the former chief of the Army Air Forces, Gen. H. H. "Hap" Arnold, leaves the White House after paying an informal call on President Truman. Now retired, Arnold spends most of the time on his farm.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

Gen. Wood, the chairman of Sears-Roebuck, is advising his fellow generals to stay out of the presidential race. . . . It's much too late to get them in the spring catalog.

* * *

But a new crop of heroes is blossoming. . . . The war assets administration has 5,000 bronze battle stars for sale at three cents each.

* * *

That entitles anybody with $3 to 1,000 battles and is one more reason for the fellows who earned their battle stars to feel a little ill these days.

* * *

A battle star was worth five points toward getting home but few veterans suspected they were going to be worth three cents after they got home.

* * *

I suppose a lot of wives will be at Bayonne mapping up 20 surplus stars on the theory that 100 points will keep a man at home forever.

* * *

And there are guys who will be telling of their experiences in the Battle of Bayonne. . . . With a three-cent star to prove it.

2 CLUBS ASSIST IN DIMES CAMPAIGN

Altrusa and Business Women Take Gifts at Theaters.

Members of the Altrusa club and the Business and Professional Women's club are assisting with the March of Dimes campaign now in progress by receiving contributions at the Palace and Marion theaters this week, it was announced today by Virgil F. Dye, campaign chairman. Workers from the two clubs will be at the theaters each night for the remainder of this week.

Workers from the Altrusa club are Miss Ruth Kinsler, Miss Madge Cooper, Miss Ruth Turner, Miss Murl Frye, Mrs. Jane Rose, Miss Irene Reynolds, Miss Mary Ellen Kerr, Miss Marie Wolfe, Miss Helen Bowe, Miss Thelma Clements, Miss Jessie Lindsey, Miss Edna Rhodes, Miss Helen Kramer, Mrs. Beulah Cathers, Mrs. Ruth Wiant and Mrs. Clara Walker.

From the Business and Professional Women's club are Mrs. Eleanor Altman, Mrs. Lucille Cunningham, Mrs. Lois Jean Barnhouse, Mrs. Faye Vestal, Mrs. Genevieve White, Mrs. Lucille Conrad, Mrs. Ferne Aux, Misses Martha Fabiani, Maxine Dune, Ruth Wise, Leona Duncan, Evelyn Hazen, Kathryn Lusch, Mary Margaret Luke.

Carl Knirk, assistant Marion County March of Dimes campaign director, was the speaker in the second of the series of radio talks being given in the interest of the drive, last night over WMRN. His talk drew a comparison between the work being done to combat infantile paralysis today and 10 years ago when the March of Dimes campaign was inaugurated.

Ten years ago, records show, victims of the disease often were treated in their homes and some were not even diagnosed as polio until crippling and incapacitation had resulted. Today, Mr. Knirk pointed out, practically all cases are hospitalized. Through prompt modern treatment, deformity is prevented, crippling minimized and fewer cripples are discharged from hospitals today.

Start Work on New Route 23 Trailer Park

E. J. Avey of Delaware has announced the completion of excavations for a new trailer park he is constructing on route 23, one mile north of Delaware.

The park, when completed will have a capacity of 30 trailers, with electric line and meter, sewage disposal, and water for individual connection to each trailer. A two-story communal building is planned. This will be constructed of concrete block and will house shower, laundry and lavatory facilities on the first floor with a recreational room on the second.

The grounds surrounding the trailer park will be equipped with picnic tables, barbecue pits, children's playground, and badminton and horseshoe courts.

Mr. Avey hopes to have the park ready for occupancy by spring.

Your Good Health

By DR. HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Causes of Skin Rash May Be Puzzling

An inflammation of the skin, known as contact dermatitis, may develop as a result of exposure to irritating substances, usually chemicals of one kind or another. Of course, if the substance causing the trouble is avoided, the rash will most always clear up, but usually neither patient nor doctor knows just what the irritant may be nor where to look for it among all the things with which the average person comes in contact. For instance, nitrocellulose, to which some people happen to be sensitive, is found in such widely various items of modern manufacture as combs, brushes, patent leather, and pingpong balls.

Thus, most cases of contact dermatitis present the physician with a puzzling problem in detection. Where the rash is not severe or troublesome, he may solve it by means of patch tests.

These tests are carried out by placing the substances suspected of producing the rash on small pieces of gauze which are fastened to the skin. Each substance is placed on a separate piece of gauze. After 24 hours, the skin under the patch of gauze will be inflamed if the person is sensitive to the substance on it.

In most cases, however, the rash comes on suddenly with itching redness, and the formation of blisters. With continued or repeated exposure to the offending substance, the rash may become much worse and spread over the entire body.

In these instances the physician's first concern must be to relieve the rash. The quickest means of doing this is to place the patient in a hospital where he is taken out of contact with his usual surroundings. Away from home, office, and garden, and separated from such possible irritants as clothing, hair tonic, soap, toothpaste, soft cushions and insect powder (to name only a few of the known offenders), the inflammation can usually be easily controlled, and mild X-ray treatments may be used to speed up the healing if it is slow.

When the rash has disappeared completely, one of the old familiar items is added daily. A woman, for example, might first choose to start using soap, then cold cream, powder, and rouge. If any of these has been causing the trouble, she will soon realize it, because itching usually starts within four to eight hours after contact with the harmful agent.

Treatment can also be carried out at home in many cases if the skin is touched by nothing but air, clean water, petrolatum, and cotton garments. The towels, sheets, and pillow-slips should contain no special starch, bluing, bleach, cleaning fluid, or other chemical substance. In washing only water is used and soap is avoided. The teeth are cleaned with salt and soda. Cornstarch is used for face powder. The itching rash may be soothed by cold water compresses or a thin layer of petrolatum.

Questions and Answers

Mrs. E. E. G.: What can be done for pyknolepsy?

Answer: Pyknolepsy is a condition in which there is loss of consciousness for a few seconds at a time. I know of no drugs which would be of any special benefit in this disorder. Treatment with such preparations as phenobarbital or dilantin sodium may be of value.

NINE straight wins in basketball is your money's worth for a season, and like the old adage about the bigger the guy, the harder he falls, the longer the streak, the sooner it's struck . . . Which leads up to Ashland, a nine game winner this season, and the Harding Presidents, who would like nothing so much as to halt them there . . . . The Prexies have at least a mathematical chance to stop Ashland's A's; they can't go on winning forever, .

And the Prexies need a victory to prove that their win over Columbus North was just the beginning of a late-season rally . . . Prexy Coach Kenny Somerlot says his hot and cold cagers are going up to Ashland Friday night with a full head of steam,

CHARLES MAYERS, sharp eyed Pleasant forward, finally made it. While his arch rival for the scoring leadership of the county league, Caledonia's Kenneth Comstock, was counting 24 points for the east siders against New Bloomington Tuesday night, Chuckin' Chuck looped in 38 as his club took Green Camp, thus grabbing the scoring leadership with 194 points in ten games. Kenny, however, is still in the race with 185 in nine games for the better average (about 20½ a game) . . . Dick Schuler, St. Mary forward, has pushed up his average to better than 17½ points a game. He's scored 229 in 13 games. At that rate, he'll break the record he set last year (310 points) by something like 59 points.

PEGGY KIRK IS FAVORITE IN FLORIDA GOLF TOURNEY

By The Associated Press

BALLEAIR, Fla., Jan. 22—Pre-tournament favorites in the $3,000 Belleview-Biltmore Women's Open golf meet here faced an uphill fight today to over take straight shooting Peggy Kirk, Findlay, O., amateur who smashed par by two strokes on the first 18 holes yesterday.

Miss Kirk, finding the long holes on the 6,374-yard layout to her liking, was one-under par each way with a 38-37—75 for a two stroke advantage.

It's Tag Team Wrestling Tonite

One of the best tag team matches should take place at the Marion armory tonite when Tony Martingale and Paul Orth team up against the team of Rex Mobeley and Percy Cissell, two of the worst "heels" in the game. The tax team match will be the two-hour main event with the best two out of three falls to win.

There will be two 30-minute matches before the tag team main event in which Paul Orth will meet the unpopular Rex Mobeley and Tony Martingale will meet "I'm the Best Man in the World" Percy Cissell. It's an all star show so don't miss it. The first match starts at 8:30. Prices—50 cents for the children, 75 cents for general admission and $1.00 for the reserved ringside. Call 2745 after 6 for the best ringside.—Adv.

Report Chandler Favorable To Amicable Relations and Reinstatement of Players

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, Jan. 22—Reports that Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler is agreeable to a peace treaty with the reformed Mexican league today cheered a penitent band of American players under suspension for succumbing to the lure of Pasquel pesos two years ago.

An unquestionable source close to Chandler's plush office here yesterday termed "obvious" the purpose of current conferences in Mexico City between Walter Mulbry, secretary of baseball, and Alejandro Aguilar Reyes, commissioner of the Mexican league.

Chandler believes, the source said, that peace between the Mexican league and organized baseball would be to the best interest of the sport in general. And, the source added, should amicable relations be restored, the outlawed players probably would be welcomed back to organized baseball without having to serve out the rest of their five-year suspensions.

May Lift Ban

Informed his suspension for "jumping" to the Mexican league in 1946 might be lifted, Mickey Owen, former Brooklyn catcher, said at his home at Willard, Mo.:

"I'll be glad to get rid of the stigma of baseball outlaw, even if I never play again. I'll just sit tight and hope that nothing happens to keep me from being reinstated now."

I've certainly learned my lesson and I'm really hot to get back into organized baseball," said big Bill (Buck) Tanner, 21-year-old fireball righthander who deserted Montreal of the International league to play for Mexico City.

It was Jorge Pasquel, millionaire sportsman and importer, who led the raid on American diamond talent in 1946 with sky high-figured contracts. Many of them soon quit in disgust, however, with loud complaints about such things as playing field conditions and modes of travel.

Players Who Jumped

Among the other players who went south of the border—and felt the sting of Commissioner Chandler's jolting penalty—were three members of the St. Louis Cardinals, pitchers Max Lanier and Fred Martin and second baseman Lou Klein; four New York Giants, infielders Nap Reyes and George Hausman, outfielder Danny Gardella and pitcher Ace Adams, and another Brooklyn Dodger, outfielder Louis Olmo.

The Mexican league reorganized last fall by returning to the commissioner system of rule with regulations limiting club payrolls and providing that a majority of the players must be Mexicans.

If it wants to enter organized baseball, the Mexican league must make formal application to the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues, the minor league organization headed by George Trautman of Columbus, O.

RAPID ROBERT INKS INDIAN CONTRACT

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Jan. 22 — Bob Feller started house-hunting today after signing a 1948 contract which Cleveland Indians President Bill Veeck maintained would continue him as baseball's highest paid performer.

As usual, terms of the agreement were not announced, but Veeck said the strikeout king could make as much as last year's $87,000, and added that "with a phenomenal year he can make a couple of dollars more.

The Tribe president described a "phenomenal year" as a season that would draw about 1,750,000 cash customers.

Feller's base pay is to remain "about the same," a figure estimated at $40,000, but his bonuses are to begin at a higher attendance mark and cover a wider scale of total paid admissions.

Last year he more than doubled his base pay with bonus money that began at 750,000 and ended at 1,250,000 paid admissions. The Indians drew a total home paid attendance of 1,521,978 last year.

Veeck did not disclose what attendance figure Feller would begin to draw a bonus, but it was believed to be 1,000,000. The maximum attendance figure at which the ace hurler would reap profits was estimated at 1,750,000.

Veeck stoutly maintained that Feller's total earnings would exceed that of Ted Williams, the Boston Red Sox slugger who was reported to have signed for $80,000 recently. Joe DiMaggio inked a New York Yankee contract that was said to call for $70,000.

Feller termed the contract "as good as any" he has signed in his 10 years with the Indians.

The hurler is looking for a furnished house of moderate size near Cleveland to rent during the coming baseball season. In the past the Fellers have stayed in a hotel but he wants more room and particularly a yard for his two sons, Steve, 2, and Martin, six months old.

SMITTY'S, ARRO BOLTS WIN IN GIRLS' LEAGUE

In the Y.M.C.A. Girls Basketball league Tuesday night, a smoothly working Smitty's squad sunk the Caledonia hoopsters 71-16, and the Arro Expansion Bolt girls bested the Y-Girls 30-9.

Smitty's, with a marked height advantage, dominated Caledonia all the way with Miss Groll pouring in 18 points and Miss Cook 20 to pace the Smitty's squad.

Exhibiting a tight defense, the Arro Expansion Bolts held the Y-Girls to four field goals and a foul toss to take the second game of the evening without difficulty. Miss Austin meshed 18 points to lead her squad.

RACE TRACK OWNER DIES

By The Associated Press

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 22 — Three race tracks were without a president today following the death of Edward P. Strong, 65, former Cleveland attorney. Strong, who was president of River Downs at Cincinnati, Thistledowns at Cleveland and Fairgrounds at Detroit, died of a heart attack yesterday.

Last-Second Heroics, One-Man Scoring Sprees Mark Last Night's College Play

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 22—Everything from last-second heroics to terrific one-man scoring sprees happened last night in Ohio collegiate basketball, but the "biggest news" was Hiram's first victory of the season.

The Hiram cagers had dropped their first six starts and weren't to be denied. Piling up a 40-19 halftime lead, they coasted 84-51 over Detroit Tech.

Sam Dixon of once-beaten Wilberforce State, and Gene Degyansky and Johnny Popp of Baldwin-Wallace provided the last second thrills, while Kenyon's Eppa Rixey and Jack Christein of Youngstown were the "one-man gangs."

Dixon was fouled with 13 seconds to play and the Defiance-Wilberforce score knotted at 43-all. He muffed his first charity toss, but dropped the second for a 44-43-win. The loss was defiance's seventh in 13 games.

Degyansky's free throw and Popp's field goal—both in the last 20 seconds—brought Baldwin-Wallace a 64-61 win over Akron and the Zippers' first home defeat this season.

But it was Rixey and Christein who did the "major" scoring. Christein went on a 36-point scoring spree as Youngstown blasted John Carroll, 81-54, while Rixey poured in 33 points to lead Kenyon 71-56 over Oberlin. Rixey's teammate, Dave Bell, notched 23.

Elsewhere last night, Capital handed Otterbein its second loss of the campaign, while registering its sixth win in seven tries, 49-45; Ohio Wesleyan pulled above the .500 mark for the season, dumping Denison, 76-64, and Steubenville beat Davis and Elkins, 68-60, with some accurate free throw shooting.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22—A few days ago Matty Begovich, a top-rank referee and coach, sounded off at length on basketball fouls and officiating and said, among other things, that a lot of the blame should be put on coaches who teach race horse basketball and those who send players out on defense to get the ball any way they can and start running . . . The same night Carl Braun of the New York Knickerbockers played the full 48 minutes against the Philadelphia Warriors and wasn't fouled once . . . . Only ten fouls were called against the Warriors, which probably is a record . . . . This seems to prove that skilled operatives can play basketball without fouling . . . . And maybe the solution to the whistle-tooting plague is not to blame the referees, liberalize rules and interpretations or increase the number of fouls permitted, but to reduce that number and go back to the original idea—which was to play clean or get out of the game.

FERRIS FAIN, the Athletics first sacker, has been entertaining folks on the winter banquet circuit with a tale about playing with Bobby Feller's All Stars on a field at Guadalajara, Mexico, which had a railroad track running through the outfield, "presenting additional hazards to a guy going after a fly ball . . . During the seventh inning the umpire called "time," a gate in the left field fence opened . . . . A man pumping a handcar came through, crossed the field, and opened the right field gate—then a train slowly chugged its way across the park . . . "Guadalajara," comments Fain, "what a pretty name for a roundhouse with bases."

FOOTBALL DODGERS HAVE NEW COACH

By The Associated Press

BROOKLYN, Jan. 22—Brooklyn's football Dodgers had a new head coach today, Carl Voyle, former mentor at Auburn—and boss Branch Rickey served notice his boys would be tough in the All-America conference next fall.

Voyles, who left Auburn at the end of the 1947 season after four years, received a one-year contract as coaching successor to Cliff Battles, who was swept out in the Dodger turnover.

NO. 1 TENNIS PLAYERS

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Jan. 22—Gardner Larned of Chicago and Shirley Fry, of Akron, O., have been rated No. 1 in the men's and women's tennis singles, according to 1948 rankings released by the Western Lawn Tennis association.

CUBS PASS UP CATALINA

By The United Press

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 22 — The Chicago Cubs said today they will pass up Catalina island as a spring training base this year. The National league club will remain at Los Angeles Wrigley Field, because only five days practice could be held at Catalina before the first exhibition game here March 6. Commissioner A. B. Chandler has banned spring training before March 1.

Prexies Promise a Lot of Shooting Against Unbeaten Ashland Friday

Harding High's cagers will travel to Ashland to give battle to the Hill-Toppers tomorrow night in a game which promises to be a shooting battle royal.

At least the Harding courtsters will be bombarding the hoop. Kenny Somerlot has given his hoopsters orders to let fly with the ball every time there's a reasonable possibility of connecting on the shot.

"Working on the supposition that my in-and-out club will be 'in,' we figure that the more we shoot the better showing we'll make," he said.

They're Tough

"My boys are capable of playing good basketball, as they have proved against tough opposition, but they have a tendency to falter against weaker opponents." Ashland certainly is not a weak opponent, and we will be playing at a disadvantage on their large court."

He continued, "Although the undefeated Ashland floormen are expected to be tough, we are not putting the pressure on our squad, but will let them take this one in stride."

The Prexies have been drilling since Tuesday on maneuvers for penetrating the zone defense employed by the high powered Ashland quintet in which two forwards play in the forecourt and the center and two guards are held back to control the backboard. The Ashland cagers also use a fast break, which will increase the pace at which the Prexies are accustomed to playing.

As for Ashland, they are not chalking tonight's contest up as a win before the game is played. Coach Taylor, who scouted the Presidents in their win over Columbus North (47-45), figures his hoopsters will have to fight to keep their string of victories intact.

They're Undefeated

The Ashland basketeers are undefeated in nine starts, having trounced Norwalk, Bellevue, Galion, Wooster, Cleveland South, Cleveland Glenville, (Glenville was undefeated in the Cleveland Senate loop until yesterday) and Fairfield, Columbus East and Sandusky, and have compiled 431 points to 275 for the opposition.

Dick Messner, All Ohio last year and maintaining a sixteen-point average this year, along with Dave Burns, who has flipped 131 points thus far this season, will be hard men to stop at their forward positions. Dick Cooper at one guard post, Cliff Hurst at the other, and Dick Johnson at center.

Ashland's reserves now hold a six and two record, winning the first six and losing the last two while Harding's reserves will be placing a 12 won and one lost record on the block.

Veeck To Reveal Promotional Magic at 'Trautman U.' Today

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 22—Bill Veeck, sport-shirted president of the Cleveland Indians, goes before almost 300 minor league baseball executives today to bare the promotional magic which made Cleveland's turnstiles click 1,521,978 times in 1947 for a new attendance record.

Veeck's talk is one of a dozen scheduled for delegates from 57 baseball leagues attending the first special rule interpretation and discussion conference, called by George M. Trautman, red-haired and militant president of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues.

First three days of the conference were spent in reading every word of the major-minor and National Association agreements with Trautman and his aides offering interpretations and explaining how various contract, waiver, assignment and other papers should be filled out.

Trautman insists his big reason for calling the conference was to teach the front office boys how to handle their paper work. He contends one of every four reports received at his headquarters had to be returned for corrections.

First social event of the confab was held last night when the Columbus ball club and the American Association headquarters were hosts at a get-together at which Lou Fonseca showed the 1947 world series films.

Although Veeck's talk was slated to highlight today's program, other top-flight baseball men were due to have their say. Among them:

Bruce Dudley, Louisville, Ky., "The Pass Gate;" Edgar Brands, the Sporting News, "The Press;" Bob Hooey, Columbus, "The Official Scorer;" Robert L. Finch, National Association publicity chief, "The Average Fan and You," and "New Leagues and Realignment."

Yesterday, Trautman urged the clubs to provide adequate dressing quarters and protection for umpires; said the "Mexican situation" was being cleared up to everyone's satisfaction; and disclosed that a uniform ball would be used in all minor leagues starting with the 1949 season.

VERBAL BANTER FLIES AT BOXING DINNER

Louis Retains Sense of Humor, Poise in Speech.

By JACK CUDDY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 — Joe Louis, heavyweight champion, retained his poise and sense of humor during last night's turbulent boxing writer's dinner.

When he rose to speak, he blinked and shook his head as if to clear it of grogginess that might have been caused by being caught in the cross-fire of verbal punches exchanged between District Attorney Frank Hogan and Chairman Eddie Eagan of the Boxing Commission.

He said, "When I heard Mr. Hogan telling what bad things was going on in the fight game, I said to myself I better quit this business right now. I never knew it was so bad.

"But when I heard Commissioner Eagan defend boxing and tell what a great sport it was and how much good it had done for underprivileged boys, I said to myself maybe I ought to stay in the game for a couple more years."

Since Louis' close fight with Jersey Joe Walcott at the Garden on Dec. 5, the champion had been assuring reporters that he would retire after his return June fight at Yankee Stadium with Walcott—win or lose.

Last night's jocular remark about fighting "a couple more years" was not taken seriously by the boxing writers.

However, the remarks of Felix Bocchicchio about Louis and Walcott were taken seriously. Bocchicchio has an exclusive contract on Walcott's services. Moreover, he is Jersey Joe's closest advisor.

Bocchicchio said, "The Louis-Walcott fight hasn't been signed; and it won't be signed until Louis and the 20th Century club agree to give Walcott 30 per cent of the net receipts from the gate, radio, television, movies, and everything else.

"Louis has signed to defend his title at Yankee Stadium in June for the 20th Century club for 40 per cent of the entire net. But Sol Strauss hasn't made a move toward Walcott yet—outside of letting us know through third parties that he is willing to give up 25 per cent. Mike Jacobs has asked us to come down to Miami Beach and talk the matter over with him; but that's a long way to go just for a little talk.

"What we want is a talk with Louis and his manager, Marshall Miles. If we sit down with Louis and Miles, we can convince them in a hurry that Louis should take 35 per cent instead of his 40; and let Walcott have 30.

"I hope Louis has a chat with us before he goes to England next month. If he doesn't, there probably won't be a Louis-Walcott fight," he added.

REDS TO BASE FARM SYSTEM ON SCOUTING

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 22 — A small, compact farm system based on quality scouting — that's the long range plan of the Cincinnati Reds to build themselves back into a National league pennant contender.

Fred Fleig, farm director for the Redlegs, summed it up that way today as he planned to meet tonight with President Warren Giles, assistant Gabe Paul and heads of 10 farm club to talk over talent and other problems.

"We have 26 scouts, 10 on a full-time basis and 16 part time, and our idea in selecting players is to confine such selection to youngsters whom we believe are potential major leaguers. We are not interested in getting and developing players who can't go further than Class A or Double-A ball. We want players for the Cincinnati major league club."

Youngsters picked up after high school graduation, or off the sand lots, generally are about four years away from a big league trial, Fleig said.

"We try to bring 'em along so that they'll get a shot at the big time within four years," the farm chief said. "Generally they don't stay up the first year, but the good ones will hang on at the second try. A youngster has a much better chance to advance through our small, select farm system than he has in a system where the parents club is all set. It's no secret that we need a bit of fixing in some spots."

Ralph (Bugg) Boyle, former Boston and Brooklyn player, is the Redleg scout in Ohio and Indiana, assisted in Ohio by Herman (Flea) Clifton, former Detroit shortstop, and Angus King, director of athletics in Cincinnati's public high schools.

BROWN CAGERS LOSE DEBUT

WARREN, O., Jan. 22 — The Cleveland Browns aren't quite as formidable on the basketball court as they are on the gridiron. The Brownies dropped a 51-35 verdict to the Warren Coaches in their cage debut at near-by Leavittsburg last night.

DEATHS and FUNERALS

Milton Tannyhill

Milton Tannyhill, 63, formerly of Marion county, died in Fostoria Friday at 7:45 p. m. He was stricken with a heart attack at his home and died as he was being placed on a stretcher to be taken to Fostoria City hospital. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Mann funeral home in Fostoria. Burial was in Fountain cemetery there.

Born March 25, 1883, in New Bloomington, he was a son of P. H. and Eliza Tannyhill. April 26, 1913, he married Alverta Woodruff in Bowling Green. A resident of Fostoria 29 years, he was an employe of the Atlas Crankshaft, Inc., here.

Surviving are his widow, a son, Ralph, and a daughter, Jeanette, both at home, a brother, Roy Tannyhill of LaRue, and several nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Ada S. Marquis

BUCYRUS — Funeral services will be conducted Friday afternoon in the Wise funeral home for Mrs. Ada Shunk Marquis, 75, former Bucyrus resident, who died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Chester Jacobs at Norwalk, Tuesday. Burial will be made in Forest Glen cemetery near Marion.

Born in Bucyrus, Mrs. Marquis lived here until the death of her husband, Harry Marquist in 1938. Her niece in Norwalk is her only close relative. She was a member of Good Hope Lutheran church of Bucyrus and a charter member of Good Hope Lutheran church of Bucyrus and a charter member of Bucyrus Royal Neighbors.

Mrs. Alpharetta Temple

RICHWOOD—Mrs. Alpharetta Temple, 82, resident of Byhalia, died in the home of a daughter in Bellefontaine Wednesday at 4 p. m. Born Dec. 1, 1865, in Byhalia, she was a daughter of Enice and Isabelle Martin Cahill, natives of Ireland. Her marriage to George Temple of Byhalia was Dec. 25, 1895. He died 22 years ago. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Lawrence Stokes and Mrs. Gwendolyn Winebrenner, both of Bellefontaine. Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2:30 p. m. in the Temple home at Byhalia by Rev. Carey of the Byhalia Friends church. Burial will be in Byhalia cemetery. The body will be removed from the Winter funeral home here to the home in Byhalia where friends may call.

Ira E. Quaintance

BUCYRUS—Ira E. Quaintance, 86, Crawford county farmer, died in his home in Dallas township at 12:45 p. m. Wednesday. He had suffered a stroke Tuesday. Born Aug. 30, 1861, near Bucyrus, he was a son of Joseph W. and Lucina Gidley Quaintance. Feb. 22, 1888, he married Margaret Denzer, who died. Dec. 27, 1898, he married Miss Allen Martin. She preceded him in death in 1910.

For more than 50 years, he specialized in the breeding of Jersey cattle. He invented and patented a manure loader and spreader, was a writer for farm journals, and at the time of his death was a crop reporter for the U. S. department of agriculture. Active in community service, he was a member of the Dallas township school board at one time, was a justice of the peace 35 years, and, a member of Bucyrus Grange, he served as Grange lecturer a number of years. He had attended Ohio Northern university at Ada, and was a member of the former Scioto Methodist Protestant church. For 54 years he lived on the farm where his death occurred. He was last of his family.

Surviving are four children by his first marriage, Mrs. Nellie Haskell of Emporia, Kan., Dr. Paul Quaintance of Los Angeles, Calif., Miss Ruth Quaintance at home, and Harry Quaintance of Dallas township, two children by his second marriage, Truman Quaintance of Californin and Mrs. Thelma Heller of Erie, Pa., nine grandchildren and a great grandson.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 2 p. m. in the Wise funeral home here by Rev. David Mumford of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Bucyrus. Burial will be in Oakwood cemetery, Bucyrus. Friends may call at the funeral home Friday night.

Howard Shepherd

CRESTLINE — Howard Shepherd, 75, of 140 East Main street, native of Crestline, and retired Pennsylvania Railroad conductor, died at his home Wednesday after several years' illness.

He was born April 24, 1872 in Crestline, a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Shepherd. Surviving is his widow, the former Bertha Shoup.

Funeral services will be held Friday 2 p. m. at the Orie Garverick funeral home where friends may call. Rev. Alva Miller of First Methodist church will officiate. Burial will be in Greenlawn cemetery.

Stell K. Young

GALION—Word was received here this week by Mrs. Belle Shook of 646 North Market street, of the death of her brother, Stell Kay Young, 61, a former Galion resident. He died Monday in New York City following a brief illness. Funeral services were held Wednesday. Mr. Young is survived by his widow, his sister, Mrs. Shook of Galion, one brother, Ora Young of Cincinnati, a niece and nephew, Mrs. Charles Ness and Paul Young, both of Mansfield.

Mr. Young left Galion in 1900 and went to Kenton where he was graduated from the high school in 1906. He attended engineering school at Ohio Northern university, Ada, served in the county engineer's office at Kenton, and later was an engineer on the Miami river restoration project. He had been investment consultant with offices in New York City for the past 15 years.

What To Do For That Sluggish, Down-and-Out Feeling

Remember the time when you could eat like a horse, bubbled-over with energy, felt happy as a lark? Was it not because you liked to eat—didn't know what indigestion was, felt strong as an ox? As age advances the "old stomach and the ever-changing blood" need help. Now you may again release vibrant energy to every muscle, fibre, cell.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that S.S.S. Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the S.S.S. Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, S.S.S. Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloat and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on S.S.S. Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. S.S.S. Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

C. OF C. COMMITTEE STUDIES BUS PROBLEM

Question of New Terminal Discussed by Group.

The civic affairs committee of the Marion Chamber of Commerce held a noon luncheon meeting Wednesday at the Y. M. C. A. Chairman Henry A. Krigbaum presided with 18 members of the committee present.

Plans were laid for a conference with heads of the various bus lines operating in and through Marion as soon as a suitable date can be arranged for the purpose of trying to find a solution to the bus terminal problem in Marion. City council, committee, city officials, and others interested will be invited to this meeting.

Further promotion of the proposed building code was discussed and planned by James Rutherford, chairman, of the building code sub-committee.

At the invitaton of Mayor Dowler, Mr. Krigbaum, Dr. Frederick T. Merchant, Charles Harmon, Carl Knirk and Hugh E. Webster were selected to attend the public hearing by the state board of health in the state office building at Columbus at 1:30 p. m. on Thursday, Jan. 29. The report of the state department of health will be made public at that time relating to the needs of Ohio for hospital facilities. This report is to be the basis for the recommendation of that department to the surgeon general of the United States for aid in hospital construction to cities and communities under the federal hospital aid bill.

If Americans run true to past performance, the country will have 1,700,000 fires this year which will kill 11,000 people.

Business Women's Club Meets at OPS Terminal

The Business and Professional Women's club was entertained for a business session Wednesday night at the Ohio Public Service Co. Terminal building. Miss Mary K. Miley presided, and business included reports of committee chairmen.

It was voted to turn over the junior size wheelchair purchased by the club some time ago to a committee composed of county and city health nurses, for use where most needed. The chair was purchased originally and loaned to a Marion child unable to walk for a time after suffering serious burns. On the committee will be Miss Esther Mautz and Mrs. Ann Sedelmaier, county health nurses, and Miss Inez Kraner, city nurse, members of the club.

Plans were discussed for bringing to Marion in the spring the Harmonaires, radio singers, for a return engagement concert, with proceeds to go into the public benefit projects fund of the club. Miss Eletha Rogers was in charge of games, and Misses Barbara Moyer and Rose Marie Harper of the Ohio Public Service Co. home department staff displayed the new completely modern kitchen which has been installed at the Terminal building.

The committee in charge of the meeting, who served, included Miss Wanda Geddis, Mrs. Lois Jean Barnhouse, Miss Lois Kraner, Mrs. Fay Vestal and Miss Rogers. Guests were high school girls of the city enrolled in commercial courses, invited to observe procedure of the club as "future business women," part of a project being carried on by the education and vocations committee of the club. The guests were Misses Diane Cramer, Mary Gruber, Juanita Cogan and Phyllis Badgley.

Programs on the Air

"The Greatest Story Ever Told" will celebrate its first anniversary on the air by repeating its premiere broadcast, "The Good Samaritan," over ABC on Sunday, Jan. 25, at 5:30 p. m.

The listening audience of the series of religious dramatizations has grown so tremendously since the program made its debut, with little or no fanfare, on Jan. 26, 1947, that the producers felt a repetition of "The Good Samaritan" would be a welcome experience to a large portion of the audience.

During its first year on the air "The Greatest Story Ever Told" has won many awards, has been enthusiastically received by clergymen of all denominations throughout the country who have recommended it to the attention of their congregations and has been cited as a beneficial influence by many nationally known personages. So many groups wrote in requesting recordings of the broadcast that the producers, in cooperation with the American Federation of Musicians and the American Federation of Radio Actors, have made recordings of the programs available on a 10-year-lease basis, to educational, religious groups and others for a nominal sum.

* * *

In order to keep his NBC program as spontaneous as possible, Jack Benny doesn't allow the orchestra to hear the rehearsals so that their laughter will not be forced when the program is on.

* * *

"Mr. D. A." once played 48 different characters within a few days on the air, but now confines his radio acting to being "Mr. D. A."

* * *

Richard LeGrand, who appears as "Mr. Peavey" on NBC's "The Great Gildersleeve," just celebrated his 64th birthday—35 years of which were spent in stock companies.

* * *

Tommy Harmon, sportscaster on NBC's "Jimmy Durante Show," has succumbed to the disc jockey fever. He has his own show over a Glendale, Calif., station every morning.

* * *

NBC's Dennis Day intended to be a lawyer, but a long illness and time to think turned him to singing as a career.

New York Stock Quotations

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Jan. 22—Downward tendencies persisted for leading stocks in today's market.

Dealings quieted after an active opening in which sizable blocks changed hands.

At 1947-48 lows were Paramount Pictures, Twentieth Century-Fox and Warner Bros. On the offside most of the time were U.S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, International Harvester, Douglas Aircraft, Dupont, Westinghouse Electric, American Smelting, Standard Oil (NJ), Santa Fe, Northern Pacific and Illinois Central.

GRAIN MARKET

Local Grain Market

(Producers Livestock Cooperative Association Quotations)

Wednesday price after 2 p. m.: Wheat 2.98; No. 3 white oats 1.20.

Range

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Jan. 22—Heavy selling swept over the grain markets at the opening on the Board of Trade today. Traders said that easiness in securities, the improved international grain outlook, and Herbert Hoover's call for a reduction in Marshall plan expenditures combined to cause the early selling.

Wheat started 1½-3¾ cents lower, May $2.97½-2.98; corn was ½ to three cents lower, May $2.67¼-2.65¾, and oats were ⅝ 1⅝ lower, May $1.27-1.26¾. Trading continued active with prices little changed from opening levels during the first 15 minutes of dealings.

HOOKWORM VIGILANCE

By International News Service

KNOXVILLE — Health knowledge has greatly reduced the toll of the hookworm, former scourge of the South, but the fight is far from won. Dr. Arthur W. Jones, associate professor in the University of Tennessee's Department of Zoology, [illegible]

WANTS UN POLICE. Talking to reporters in Washington, Mayor Israel Rokach of Tel Aviv, Palestine, is shown as he urged a 10,000-man United Nations police force to keep order in the Holy Land after the British troops withdraw. He declared the British favor the Arabs who, he said, are under the direction of the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem and those "who supported the Nazis during the war."

Prior Service MEN
Jobs for You in Europe
All Expenses Paid and $90 a Month to Start

Enlistments in the U. S. Army for service in Europe are now open to a limited number of men with prior service. You can sign up for three years and be assured of a job in our occupation program in Europe. Here's your chance to learn how other people live, to see interesting sights a hundred years old, to learn something of a culture vastly different from ours.

Big things are happening in Europe today. Your job will be an important part of them. Helping promote the ways of democracy is a long job, and an interesting one. The experience you gain can be helpful all of your life.

Your free time can be spent in well-equipped clubs, resort hotels, ball parks. You can study under the U. S. Armed Forces Institute for credit toward your college degree!

And all the time you earn full Army pay! Get further details at your U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station, 138 S. Main St., Marion.

COMPLETE AVIATION INDEX BEING MADE

By The United Press

DAYTON, O.—A standard aeronautical index embracing every known subject in the field of aviation is being compiled at Wright Field. The air documents division of the Air Material Command's intelligence department is in charge of the work.

The index, a joint project of the Army, Navy and Institute of Aeronautical Sciences will provide the military and civilian aviation world with ready access to almost every topic in the history of aviation. The list also will include projects rejected as impractical or impossible.

Col. H. M. McCoy, head of the intelligence department, estimated that the records divisions would be caught up with the tremendous task some time during the present fiscal year, probably before July 1.

Col. McCoy said the index is now the main occupation of the document division, which has just completed the job of cataloging the tons of German documents captured by Air Force intelligence during and after the War.

He pointed out the need for such an index had existed for a long time and was stressed recently by President Truman's Air Co-Ordinating Committee.

"This is the first time an index of this type has been attempted," Col. McCoy said. "It will be a continuous project aimed to provide a standard and centralized information service for all authorized military and civilian agencies."

Col. McCoy said that although the documents division had completed the job of cataloging the German aeronautical documents, thousands of documents remain to be translated and microfilmed.

The division sends information to interested persons in the form of microfilmed documents.

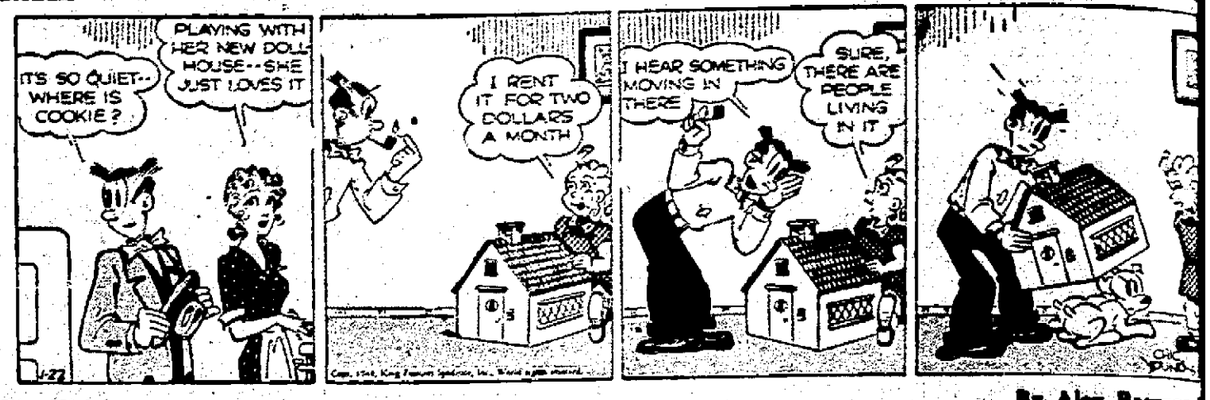
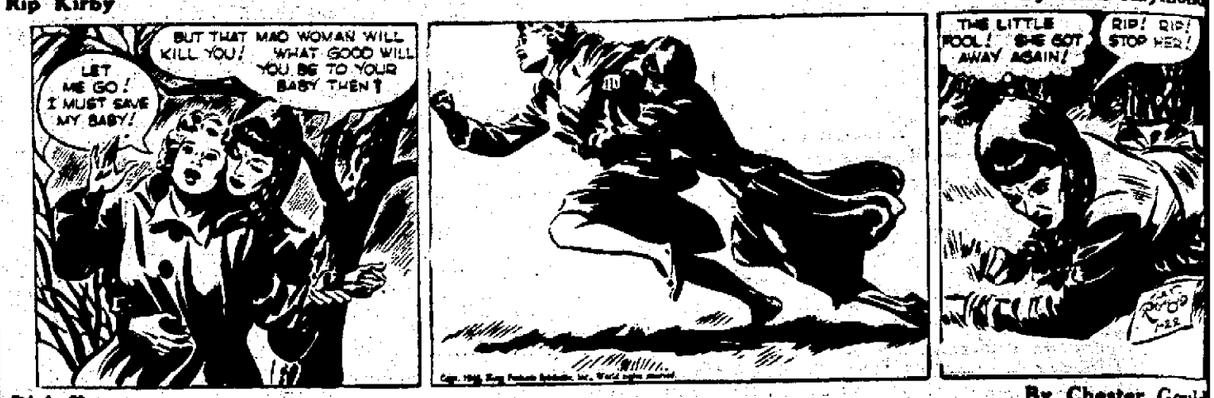
Blondie By Chic Young



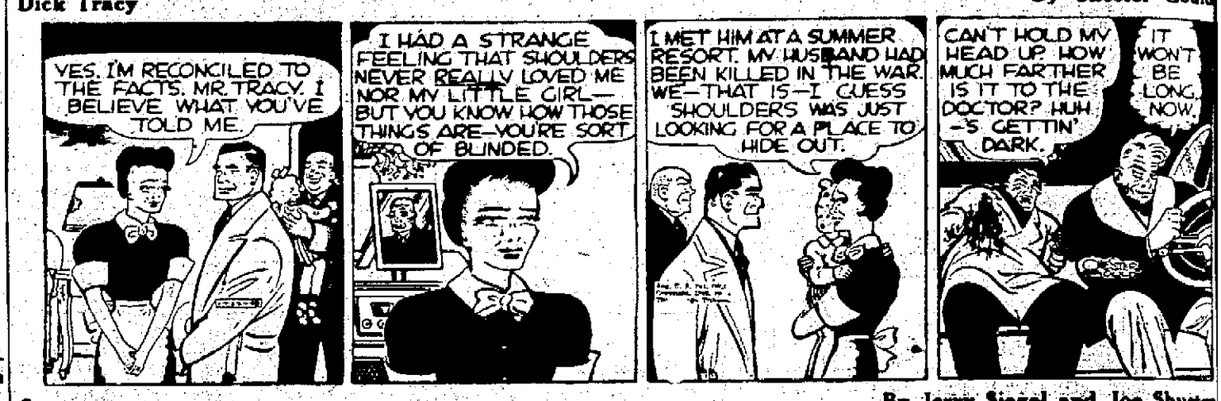
IT'S SO QUIET—WHERE IS COOKIE?
PLAYING WITH HER NEW DOLL HOUSE—SHE JUST LOVES IT
I RENT IT FOR TWO DOLLARS A MONTH
I HEAR SOMETHING MOVING IN THERE
SURE, THERE ARE PEOPLE LIVING IN IT

Rip Kirby By Alex Raymond



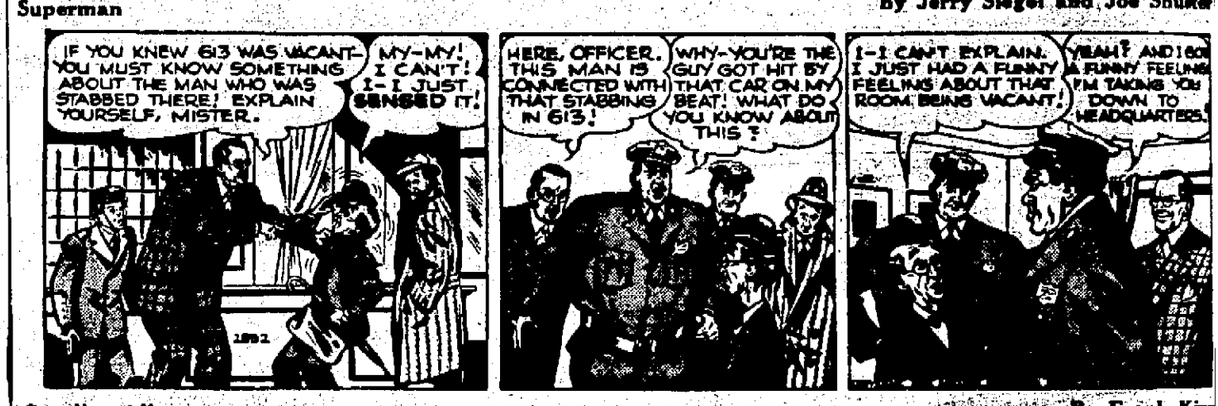
LET ME GO! I MUST SAVE MY BABY!
BUT THAT MAD WOMAN WILL KILL YOU! WHAT GOOD WILL YOU BE TO YOUR BABY THEN?
THE LITTLE FOOL! SHE GOT AWAY AGAIN!
RIP! RIP! STOP HER!

Dick Tracy By Chester Gould



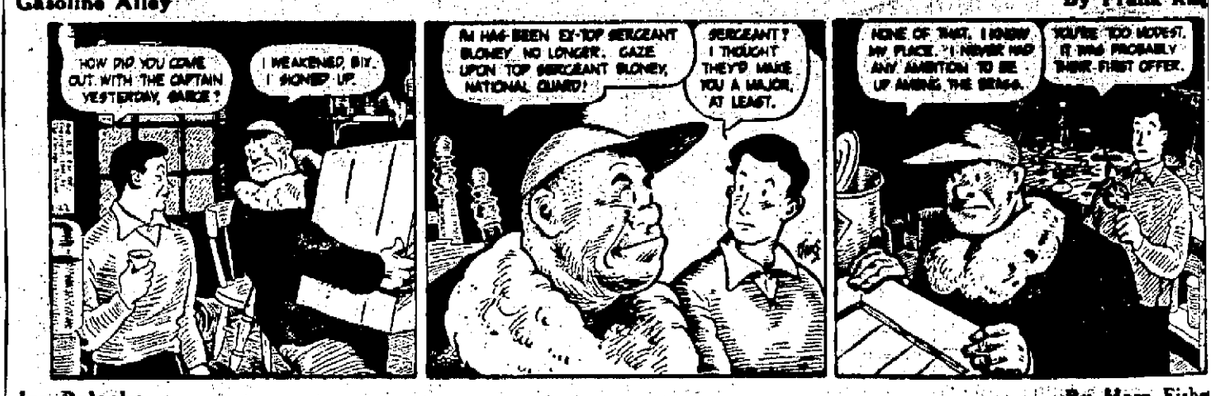
YES, I'M RECONCILED TO THE FACTS, MR. TRACY. I BELIEVE WHAT YOU'VE TOLD ME.
I HAD A STRANGE FEELING THAT SHOULDERS NEVER REALLY LOVED ME NOR MY LITTLE GIRL—BUT YOU KNOW HOW THOSE THINGS ARE—YOU'RE SORT OF BLINDED.
I MET HIM AT A SUMMER RESORT. MY HUSBAND HAD BEEN KILLED IN THE WAR. WE—THAT IS—I GUESS SHOULDERS WAS JUST LOOKING FOR A PLACE TO HIDE OUT.
CAN'T HOLD MY HEAD UP. HOW MUCH FARTHER IS IT TO THE DOCTOR? HUH—S GETTIN' DARK.
IT WON'T BE LONG NOW.

Superman By Jerry Siegel and Joe Shuster



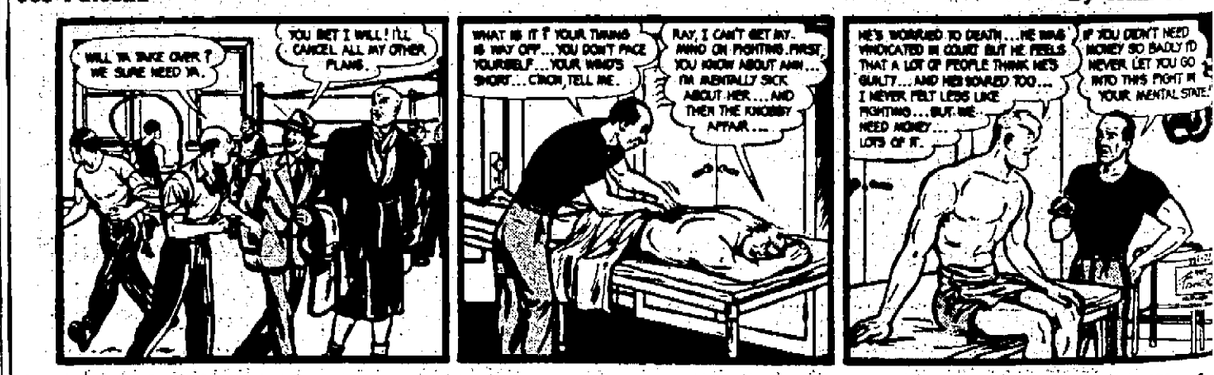
IF YOU KNEW 613 WAS VACANT—YOU MUST KNOW SOMETHING ABOUT THE MAN WHO WAS STABBED THERE! EXPLAIN YOURSELF, MISTER.
MY-MY! I CAN'T! I—I JUST SENSED IT!
HERE, OFFICER. THIS MAN IS CONNECTED WITH THAT STABBING IN 613!
WHY—YOU'RE THE GUY GOT HIT BY THAT CAR ON MY BEAT! WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT THIS?
I—I CAN'T EXPLAIN. I JUST HAD A FUNNY FEELING ABOUT THAT ROOM BEING VACANT!
YEAH? AND I GOT A FUNNY FEELING I'M TAKING YOU DOWN TO HEADQUARTERS.

Gasoline Alley By Frank King



HOW DID YOU COME OUT WITH THE CAPTAIN YESTERDAY, BARCLE?
I WEAKENED, BIX. I SCREEP UP.
AH HAS BEEN EX-TOP SERGEANT BLONEY NO LONGER. GAZE UPON TOP SERGEANT BLONEY, NATIONAL GUARD!
SERGEANT? I THOUGHT THEY'D MAKE YOU A MAJOR, AT LEAST.
NONE OF THAT. I KNOW MY PLACE. I NEVER HAD ANY AMBITION TO BE UP AMONG THE BRASS.
YOU'RE TOO MODEST. IT WAS PROBABLY THEIR FIRST OFFER.

Joe Palooka By Ham Fisher



WILL YA TAKE OVER? WE SURE NEED YA.
YOU BET I WILL! I'LL CANCEL ALL MY OTHER PLANS.
WHAT IS IT? YOUR TIMING IS WAY OFF... YOU DON'T FACE YOURSELF... YOUR MIND'S SHORT... C'MON, TELL ME.
RAY, I CAN'T GET MY MIND ON FIGHTING. FIRST, YOU KNOW ABOUT ANN... I'M MENTALLY SICK ABOUT HER... AND THEN THE KNOBBY AFFAIR...
HE'S WORRIED TO DEATH... HE WAS VINDICATED IN COURT BUT HE FEELS THAT A LOT OF PEOPLE THINK HE'S GUILTY... AND HER SCARED TOO... I NEVER FELT LESS LIKE FIGHTING... BUT WE NEED MONEY... LOTS OF IT.
IF YOU DIDN'T NEED MONEY SO BADLY I'D NEVER LET YOU GO INTO THIS FIGHT IN YOUR MENTAL STATE!

Terry and the Pirates By George Wunder

THE DRAGON LADY PERMITS HERSELF TO BOAST ONLY BECAUSE WE ARE ALONE—AND YOU COULD NEVER PROVE THAT I SAID A WORD.
SURE, BABE, I'M JUST CURIOUS TO KNOW IF YOU'RE REALLY SO CLEVER... WHY'D YOU PICK OLD MAN O'HARA FOR YOUR FRAME?
THE CHINESE RIVER PILOT ABOARD HIS SHIP WAS IN MY PAY. HE SENT ME WORD OF THE MOVEMENTS OF PATROL CRAFT THAT ENABLED ME TO ROUTE MY CONTRABAND JUNKS THROUGH SAFELY...
I GET IT! SO YOU PULLED SUSPICION AWAY FROM HIM BY PLANTING EVIDENCE AGAINST O'HARA...
CHARLES! WHY DO YOU KEEP MOVING THOSE FLOWERS?

The Gumps By Gus Edson

THIS IS IT, PEOPLE! THE BIG DAY! MR. A. IS HERE AND HIS NAME IS AVERAGE!
MR. AVERAGE? WHAT'S THIS ALL ABOUT? READ ON, MAN....
"NO MORE TRIAL AND ERROR!" THE FOOD, CLOTHES, ENTERTAINMENT THAT MR. AVERAGE LIKES BEST, YOU TOO, WILL LIKE BEST."—
"HE'S AN ACTUAL PERSON... CAREFULLY SELECTED TO BE THE TASTE TESTER OF THE NATION! LET MR. AVERAGE BE YOUR GUIDE, FELLOW CONSUMER!"
